HENRY JOHNSON

WITH NOMINATION. RANDALL HUNT.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTE 29, 1904.

The issue of the day is the one that has been discussed and debated in the State for many months. It is the issue of the reformation of our laws...

Our readers will perceive in today's paper a full and complete report of the meeting of the Executive Committee of the State...

It will be recalled that in the first issue of this paper we published the names of those who had been nominated for the office of Governor at the recent primary...

As a result of the meeting of the Executive Committee, we have been able to secure a full and complete report of the proceedings...

We are indebted to the State of Louisiana for the privilege of publishing this report. It is a privilege that we shall not lightly regard...

The State of Louisiana is a great and powerful State. It is a State that has made great contributions to the progress of our country...

It is our duty as citizens of this State to take an active interest in the affairs of our government. We should strive to make our government more efficient and more just...

Our readers will find in this paper a full and complete report of the proceedings of the Executive Committee. It is a report that we believe will be of great interest to all our readers...
