MONEY MARKET.

Commercial.

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY NIGHT, Oct. 22, 1841.

Business is improving slowly, but of course we notice a good deal of activity and bustle, but sales are still very much restricted. The prices have not diminished very considerably under the influence of the late cold weather, but we deem it our duty to advise strangers not to be too hasty in receiving, as the supply seems still continue to linger amongst us until effectually eradicated by a frost.

The river remains at the same stage previously noticed.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 19th inst. of Louisiana and Mississippi, 4,500 bales. Coastwise in the same time for Northern ports, 2,500 bales, the whole together, 7,000 bales, making an addition to stock of 4,750 bales, and leaving on hand, exclusive of an unshipped not cleared this day, a stock of 74,000 bales.
