Commercial.

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY NIGHT, August 12, 12 M.

The operations in our market during the past week have been of a moderate character, there is nothing doing to-day, but can we expect any change before some decided one.

The accounts received from England to-day are rather unfavorable for our great staple; the depression in the Liverpool market appears to have reached the lowest point.

The returns of the steamer's Books have each week a more favorable improvement at same time last, but the sales to consumers continue have still to be complained of.

The weather has been quite warm during the past week, and the health of the city is excellent.
