YOUNG LADIES' SEMINARY.

AT Hurstville, near New Orleans, about to be removed to Greensville at the stopping place of the Carrollton railroad, founded and directed by Mme. Delarouche from Paris.

This institution, though only established eighteen months since, has in consequence of the rapid improvement of the pupils already obtained the confidence and the assistance added by her husband, Dr. Delarouche, and persuaded that she will be able to give her power to merit the excellent reputation enjoyed by her establishment.

The different branches of education consist of the following:

English language,	French language
Dictation,	Dictation,
Analysis,	Analysis,
Composition,	Composition.

Roman history, Greek, history of the United States, French mythology, cosmography, geography, arithmetic, elements of botany and natural history, painting, drawing, artificial flowers, needle work, reading aloud.

Mme. Delarouche is about to unite to the professors who already teach in her establishment, a second music master, and as a teacher of dancing is expected, an ecclesiastical will visit the seminary to use a work, for the purpose of inspecting religious instruction, and preparing catholic children for their first communion. s13
