ST. VINCENT'S COLLEGE,

LAFAYETTE, LA.

THIS College, incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Missouri, in 1845, with all powers and privileges granted to Colleges and Universities in the United States, is located in one of the most salubrious places on the river Mississippi, forty miles above the mouth of the river Ohio, and consequently beyond the reach of either fever or frost. There are forty acres of land for the use of the College, and a country house has also been provided, a mile and a half from the town, where the pupils may spend their days of recreation.

The plan of education is designed to prepare young men for professional or commercial life.

Though this institution is directed by Catholic Clergymen, young persons of all denominations, however, are admitted.

Terms—The annual pension is $150, for tuition, board and lodging, washing, mending linen and stockings, and Doctor's fees, payable at most in advance.

There are forty dollars charged for the German, Italian and hebrew languages; Music and Drawing.

If the pupils spend their vacations at the College, suitable recreations will be procured without any additional expense or extra charge.

Pocket money belonging to pupils will be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer of the institution.

For further information apply to

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS.

ADAM AND EVE, OR THE TEMPTATION; AND DEATH OF ABEL.

THESE splendid Paintings, by C. May, (together with a collection of about forty FANCY PAINTINGS, on different subjects, by the same artist,) are now open for exhibition at the corner of Magazine and Gravier streets, in the second story of the Bullein Office (Arcade Building).

The two principal paintings are each 9 feet by 8; cost in Europe, and have excited universal admiration wherever they have been exhibited. The smaller pieces are on a variety of subjects, and in different styles of painting.

C. May, the artist, will be in the room for the public at FOR TRADE PAINTER; he executes likenesses in any style that may be desired, and can exhibit unequivocal specimens and testimonials of his ability in the picture in that description of painting.

The exhibition will be open from 9 o'clock A. M. till sundown.

Admittance—25 cents; Children half price. Season Tickets, $5 each.

Entrance on Gravier street. j24—1m
