FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES:

HENRY CLAY.

NEW-ORLEANS:
TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 2, 1844.

☞ The mail arrived through yesterday, bringing dates from New York to the 31st March, but no later European advices. The steamer had been out 17 days.

THE RESULT.

Let those rejoice over the result of yesterday's election who can contemplate, with satisfaction, the prostitution of the ballot-boxes and the triumph of foreigners over the citizens of the State. In the Second Municipality, where the spurious naturalization certificates issued by Judge Elliott were rejected, the whig party succeeded in electing their whole ticket. But it was in succession in electing their whole ticket. But it was in succession in electing their whole ticket. But it was in succession
