FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD—Runaway since the night of the 15th inst, from the plantation of the subscribers, situated at Matchez, opposite New Orleans, the mulatto BEN, alias BENJAMIN, aged about twenty-seven years, 5 feet 7 inches (English measure) well built, with a handsome face, large mouth, rather thick lips, long and flat nose, has no beard, and is of a dark brown color. This mulatto speaks and writes English, French and Spanish. He is a good cooper and will probably seek employment in his business.

ALSO—The negro JEAN BAPTISTE, aged about forty-five years, 5 feet 8 inches in height, (Angling measure) Jean Baptiste is a creole negro, speaking the English indifferently. He is of a weak constitution, thin face, bright eyes, and has a small beard nearly gray.

These two negroes were sent yesterday on the Canal Verret, near the plantation of the undersigned.

The whole reward will be paid to the person who will lodge them in one of the jails of this city—or one-half for the apprehension of either of them.
