NEW ORLEANS BEE
 J. MAGNE & WENDE, PROPRIETORS.
 NO. 21 CHARTRES STREET.
Official Newspaper of the State.
 PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
 THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 6, 1845.
 The National Mail arrived from New Orleans on the 25th inst. containing the "Government Express" with date as late as due.
 MR. MILES TAYLOR.
 This gentleman made a powerful and eloquent speech yesterday in the Convention, in behalf of the representation in the Legislature. In the name of his constituency (for we consider every member of the Convention as representing the rights and interests of the entire State), he has done for his country and posterity, what no other man has done. It was as cogent a reasoning, as luminous an illustration as is to be seen in any of our public assemblies. It was a specimen of the highest order of eloquence, and it was a specimen of the highest order of patriotism. It was a specimen of the highest order of patriotism, and it was a specimen of the highest order of patriotism.

MEXICO.
 By Brig Abasco, we have received Mexican papers up to the 15th of February.
 Santa Anna is to be tried on the 24th February, by the Congress, which will be held in Mexico. It is not present himself before the grand jury, but sends his attorney, the trial is not so clear.
 It appears that Santa Anna has full liberty in coming to the States, but he is not to be permitted to go to any other place, and he is not to be permitted to go to any other place, and he is not to be permitted to go to any other place.

 NATIONAL ARCHITECTURE.—Eaton Stone has a beautiful specimen of the architecture of the middle age, which he has just discovered in the ruins of the Temple of Solomon. It is a specimen of the highest order of architecture, and it is a specimen of the highest order of architecture.

CONGRESSIONAL.
 On the morning of the 5th, Mr. Allen of Ohio, having the floor, spoke in great earnestness in favor of Santa Anna. At the close of his speech he expressed his hope that the Convention would pass a resolution in favor of Santa Anna. He then spoke in great earnestness in favor of Santa Anna, and he then spoke in great earnestness in favor of Santa Anna.
