na company—will be represented this evening for the time. The piece possesses a double interest from vermore. Take it all is all, this charming opera has been played by the Italians with more spirit, in better style and with inore effect, than we have ever seen before. Not only see the individual artists, with excrebly we exception, really admirable, but the example in particularly fine. The finale to the second act, which is Donizetti had written nothing else, would have given nim a world-wide reputation, has been executed on every occasion with wonderful power, precision and the nat perfect timing and tasteful modulation. To listen to that finale alone is worth the price of a ticket.

THE CASE OF POLLY BODINE.—The N. Y. Courier of the 7th says:—The systeme is this case was clossed on Saturday evening, with the exception of one or jwo witnesses, who will be examined this morning, as at the amounting up will then commone and occupy crartically two days. The attendance of ladion is still very large, and Judge Edmonds had occasion on Saturday to administer to some of them a very sharp repress for standing up to gaze and stare at the prisoner we she passed out of Court. That, however, did not deter them from filling the court room again in the after-occe.

A RECIPEOCAL TREATY.—The Was hington Consti-tution mays that a russor is current, as id generally ac-credited, in that city, that the Brit'sh Minister, Mr-Pakenham, is charged with the nego tiations of a treaty with the Unised States, "based upris reciprocal advan-tages to the products of each country in their respec-tive medicar.

THE CONVENTION.

Constitution, on the Judiciary. The lat section vects

Course in the city of New Ordenas, as the Legislature may direct.

Mr. Ratiff offerd a substitute vesting the Judicia; power in the Supreme Courst, and such inferior courses as may be assablished by haw. He austained this subtitute, in an argument which want to abow that it would be the Legislature to create such it would be the Legislature to create such it would be the Legislature to create such of the committee—the principle of randoming the three great powers of the Government as independent as new powers of the Government as independent as independent as independent of the Legislature and Exacutive, as the latter were independent of the Judiciary. This was to consider the dependent of the Legislature and Exacutive, as the latter were independent of the Legislature and Exacutive, as the latter were independent of the Legislature and Exacutive, as the latter were independent of the Legislature and Exacutive, as the latter were independent of the Judiciary. This was to come by distinctly defaning the different officers, and specifying their powers, just as had been clearmant of the proposed for the Legislature was conditioned in the latter was a condition, not a subordiant set department of the Government. He was, thresfore, at a loss of the substitute of the Legislature was to condition the latter was a condition, not a subordiant set department of the Connection of the Legislature was a condition, not a subordiant set department of the Government. He was, thresfore, at a loss to conceive why opport, and they cannot have continued to the latter was a condition, not a subordiant set department of the Government. He was, thresfore, at loss to be expected to the control of the Legislature was a condition, not a subordiant set department of the Government. He was, thresfore, at a loss to conceive why opport, and they cannot have controlled to the latter was a condition, not a subordiant set of the designation of the proper office are to compose the Judiciary. The substitute of the Connection of the Legislature w Mr. Ratliff offered a subatitute vesting the Judicia every occasion with wonderful power, precision and the nat previect timing and tasteful modulation. To listen from that finale alone is worth the price of a ticket.

THE OROAM."—The Washington correspondent of the Estitutore Patrial says it is now settled that the Glober's to be "the Organ," and that Messers Richies & Jense are to be time Globers be "the Organ," and that Messers Richies & Jense are to be time Globers—Messers Blair & Rives having at least agreed to dispose in whole or part of the settlements. On the other hand, the Madizonian has need purchased by Jesse E. Dow and Theophilus Fish, sho will exert themselves to publish a better Administration paper than the Glober, and will annoy Mr. Ritchie by raking up reminiscences of a faltering, time to Government. He was, thereof, at a less to conceive why opportion should arise to the designation of the proper of locars to compose the Judiciary.

If the Legistature, were empowered to change the to course in regard to the Sub-Treasury and other measures. On the Tariff, too, they intend to hold old. Hence he dispute the location of the Legislature in the substitute.

Mr. Ratilif was anxious for the

Mr. Reed moved to add the words "District Courts" in the substitute.

Mr. Ratiff was anxious for the independence of the Judiciary so for as their jurisdiction was concerned but was in favor of giving to the Legislature the power of eastablishing judicial functions. He withdraw his substitute and moved to amend the section by striking out the words "in the city of New Orleans."

Mr. Eastis declared that the clause which Mr. Ratiff proposed to strike out had been proposed by members from the country, and that the whole stricks had been prepared with great care had deliberation. As it was proposed to alect judges for a short term of years, it was thought proper to remove them beyond the caprice or control of the Legislature, so as to secure their continuance in office.

Mr. Soulds moved to lay the section on the table subject to call. Carrie d.

ject to call. Carried.

Mr. Soulé moved to reconsider the vote on the Senstood 30 to 25 on this question. As this was a smaller number of votes than that by which the apportisement was passed, it was contended under the new rule that the question was lost.

Pending the discussion, the House adjourned to five o'clock, P. M.

Thus does the spirit of Tylerism domplain through the columns of the Madionian, of the procerpions of the Polk administration. That paper has been engaged for some days in the bootless labbur of reminding the Democrats how much they owed to John Tyler, by publishing extracts from the Democratic papers lauding Mr. Tyler for withdrawing from the Presidential cantage. It has given extracts from the "Enquerer, from the Nashville."
