NOTICE TO PERSONS INTERESTED IN THE PROSPERITY OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA.

A TRUE resident of the PARISH OF TENSAS, Louisiana, near that of Mr Bush, may be seen about the hundred thousand Bib Cotton, which will be ready for sale and ship such are in the cast, the first-cut state of health and liveliness. It will be an interesting sight to observe them, when they first come to the cotton-house after the fields are finished. It will be seen how easy it is in this country with slow children that are two years old to realize a handsome income from the labor of the first 6 years every month, until September next to obtain a similar amount of silk. a23—1w

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Richard Isaacs, f. m. c., charged with insulting a white person, was yesterday put upon trial. The Jury not being able to agree upon a verdict, were discharged from further consideration of the case.

☞ Catherine Keenan, charged with stealing a pair of boots from William Benton, was yesterday brought before Recorder Baldwin, and committed for six months to the Workhouse.

☞ A man named Thomas McKnight, was yesterday arrested by the police of the second municipality, charged with stealing a gold watch from Cagenaro gil. He will be examined this morning, before Recorder Baldwin.

☞ The "Mobile Herald" man, spins a rich yarn all about pompanoe, white kids, cotton umbrellas and salt junk. We opine he has gotten hold of the finale of the story, rather than the commencement—he should have stated that the attaché of the tripod, who was engaged in this delightful sport, was the scholastic Colonel.—The medicine man only assisted in stowing away the fishing "fixens," after the Scholastic had been forced to retire to his berth, from sea sickness.

☞ The weather yesterday was excessively warm.—When does Benaiah intend opening his floating baths? We hope the First Municipality Council will place no unnecessary obstacle in the way, to prevent our citizens from an early enjoyment of this healthy and delightful luxury.

FOR LOUISVILLE.—The splendid passenger steamer Sultana, Capt Pease, will leave for Louisville this afternoon, at 5 o'clock. Passengers embracing this opportunity, will be in time for the Memphis Races.

FIRE.—Yesterday afternoon, between 3 and 4 o'clock, a brick building formerly occupied as an Engine house by Phœnix Company No. 8, and recently as a School house, at the corner of Victory and Clouet streets, in the Third Municipality, was discovered to be on fire, and before the arrival of the Fire Companies with their engines, was entirely gutted. A number of sheds in the vicinity were also destroyed.

☞ Tow Boat Swan passed a dead body on the 22d inst., about ten miles above the Passes, supposed to be a bright mulatto; had on a blue flannel shirt and duck pantaloons, with an iron collar around the neck, to which was attached about two feet of rope.

☞ We had looked with great confidence for the news by the Grand Western by yesterday's mail, but were disappointed. The mail has failed to reach Savannah—an occurrence of late very unfrequent, but particularly provoking on this occasion.

☞ We are indebted to the Clerk of steamer Albatross for late Cincinnati, Louisville and Memphis papers.

☞ We are indebted to the officers of the steamer Maria for late St. Louis papers.

INQUEST.—Coroner Douglas called a jury of inquest on Saturday last upon the body of a man found floating in the river, whose name, age, occupation, place of residence, &c., as enumerated, could be found on his person, are as follows:—Jonathan Stone, Auburn, Maine, 28 years old, a seafaring man; had about him a small amount of specie and some papers that may be of importance to others. Verdict, accidental drowning.—Mobile Observer.

☞ The Pensacola Gazette relates the following occurrence, which took place a few days since at Cedar Bluff, on the Chochtahatchie:—

A barge belonging to Mr. Cook, was being along the bank of the river, on board of which Mr. N. Mitchell, of Holmes Valley, and his lady and several children were passengers bound for Pensacola. The owners of a panther were heard at a distance, and presently after, the ferocious animal bounded towards the barge. All was confusion—gathering up their children, and leaping near there, was on the bank and took refuge on board the barge, closely pursued by the panther, which leaped upon him, and with his claws, mangled him dreadfully on the left side and breast, before anything effectual could be done for his relief. At length a rifle was procured and the panther was shot while yet in the act of tearing and mangling its victim. We are informed that the animal was found to have in his mouth a short stick of wood one end of which was embedded in one of his paws, and the other end projecting directly against the other paw, so that he was entirely prevented from biting. What connection this singular circumstance may have had with the strange conduct of the animal in whether that may not be a case of hydrophobia, is a matter of conjecture. The inside of the mouth of the animal showed signs of its having been very sore for a long time, from the wound produced by the stick, and the stick was much disordered.

A CHITASHE.—The Lafourche Gazette of the 19th has the following:—On Friday the 28th ult., the inhabitants of Thibodaux were considerably frightened by the breaking of a Crevasse in the Bayou, near the Terrebonne canal. The cause was owing to the narrowness of the canal, who cut a small ditch through the levee on the bayou, of the head of the canal, for the purpose of letting water into it, sufficient to float the mud boat employed in cleaning out the canal, and the water became so strong as to carry it off. The earth which composed the levee being nothing but fine sand, and the bayou being very high, the water soon commenced washing it away, and in less than two hours the small ditch was about five feet deep and fifteen wide, and the water was flowing through in a tremendous rate. The people of Thibodaux, without discretion, immediately turned out, and after unwearied labor for a great many hours, succeeded in stopping it. And it not been for the prompt labor of the gentlemen of the above citizens, and some of the neighboring planters, this crevasse could hardly have been stopped this season—and even if it could have been easily stopped, had the least delay taken place, the injury to the planters on the canal of Terrebonne would have been enormous. We understand that the expense of stopping it cannot be less than four or five hundred dollars. Bags of sand and moss were thrown in and a proportionate quantity of lumber, plank, pickets, &c. No damage was done to the adjacent country.

☞ Speculators in Real Estate will do well to watch the sales of the Real Estate belonging to the Canal Bank. The property sold yesterday did not realize the anticipations of those who purchased it, but the proprietors are authorized to state that the whole of it has to be sold to the highest bidder.

☞ The sale of the Real Estate belonging to the Canal Bank will be continued this day, at 10 o'clock, at Banks' Arcade. The sale commences at lot 16, Square No. 2.
