WM_DEBUYS, State Treasurer.

The quidnunes and hunters after stray items of news are just now in a perfect cestacy of rapture at the discovery of a piece of political gossip sufficiently accessaries and appendages with which the brilliant imagination of Washington reporters had invested in the story may be briefly stated as follows. In one of Mr. Buchavan's setters to Mr. Paken-

RAM, setting forth the various facts and theories upon which our title to Oregon reposes, the Americas Secretary of State cities the following as irrefragibl-proof of the strength of our claims:

on the 20th January, Lord Brotton House of Lords (in the 20th January, Lord Brottonam, doubties deeply impressed with the lawful gravity of the affair asked of the Honorable Secretary for Foreign Affairs—the Earl of Aberdeen—if he were cognizant of this portentious business, and upon the Noble Earl-

MEXICO. We published a day or two since, a summary of later advices from Mexico, received via Pensacola 4. The Democrat of the 6th, furnishes a somewhat fuller statement as follows:

"The brig Lawrence left Vera Cruz on the 18th February, the day after the arrival of the shoops of war Falmouth and John Adams, the former bearing the broad permant of Commodore Conner. While the Lawrence was working out of the harbor of Vera Cruz, the Falmouth and the City were exchanged, salates. Sania Anna was expected at Vera Cruz, the an English Seam Packet from Havana, and it as anticipated that on his arrival another retrounded would take place. A report was current in the City that Arista had taken up his line of march with six thousand well appointed troops for the mission to Texas.

"Even British geographers have not doubted our title to the territory in dispute. There is a large and spiendid globe now in the Department of State, recently received from London, and published by Malby & Co., 'manufacturers and publishers to the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge,' the Malbagan this territory to the United States."

Thus, to be sure, is a very potent fact. Since Malbagan the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, but the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, on the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, and coloring a globe, bubble fit to assume to the United.

First Municipatury Council.—The Council met vestershy evening purmant to adjournment, ten members present. A report was read from the Board of Health announcing that several cases of small pox had appeared in the city, and recommending free and gravious vaccination in order to stop its progress.—Referred to the committee on Public Schools.

A letter was read from the keeper of the Bayou Cemetery, pursying for a lot of ground to be added to the ceretery, as the present one was filling my very fast. Mr. Hagan presented a petition that the three municipalities take measures to open a Poster's Field for the king of New Orleans, a prorate to be paid by each municipality to defray expenses. The above to take effect on the let July next—an amendment was offered in order that no more interments be made in the present Potter's field, after the lat of June, and that timrediate action be taken on the subject by the three simulcipalities, so gs to have a new cemetery for the poor opened by that time.

After the reading of numerous petitions of little importance to the public, the council adjourned
