The game of Monte is rigidly prohibited and a numitor of persons have been fined for infringing the ordanances on the subsect. MRS. FARRIS'S BREFIT.—(I) the occasion of this lady's last benefit at the St. Charles Theatre, the receipts scarcely covered the expenses, sithough the bill was a good one and the weather very fine. We suncerely trust that This Evening our community will give her a more substantial proof of their admiration for her talents as an actress, and of their esterm and respect for her as a kind mother and as an affactionate wife. While on the subject of "our Mrs Parren," we would remark that less week the Mobilians gave "their Miss Stuart" an immense house on the evening of her benefit. Why should we not do the same for Mrs. Farren I is she not one of us I Is also not still an admirable and indefatigable actress I—is sine not in every way deserving of support!
