The War Begun.

The news which reached our city on Saturday morning in relation to the movements of the Maxican forces—and the disastrous result of a skirmish between a detachment of American troops and the advanced guard of the enemy—though not entirely utexpected by those who had watched the course of events upon the frontier, was sufficiently alarming to create a profound sensation and intense excitement among all classes of the population. Such lad been the entire confidence reposed in the skill and courage of Gen. Taylos, and such the overweening contempt of Gen. Taylor, and such the overweening contentrained for Mexican pretensions to valor, until the worst was known, people had fondly beli ed that an encounter with the foe must necessar terminate in the triumph of the American are While the slaughter of Capt. Harder and his soldi while the shaughter of Capt. Harnes and his soldier, has abated something of the national pride, it as aroused a stern determination to retainte, and enhated every American to feel that the forbearasce which has hitherto most unwisely characterized the policy of our government, must give way to the accessity of chastising and humbling an audacious selemy, that has dared to invade our soil and beleaguer our army.

The proceedings of the Governor, the legisla The proceedings of the Governor, the legislature and the citizens generally, in consequence of this intelligence, are fully detailed in our columns. One and all, they have responded to the calls of patriotism and honor, with an eagerness and unanimity worthy of the most unstituted praise. We refer our readers to the proclamation of his Excellency, the reported the two houses, and the accounts of the programade in obtaining volunteers, for the evidence to these facts. If, where there is so much worthy to commendation, any particular act can be singled out we may refer with special gratification to the UNAN MOTE ADOPTION, by both branches of the Leg slatury of a bill appropriating one hundred thousand dollas to the equipment of reinforcements, and a resolution placing at the disposal of the Executive the whole resources of the State for the national defence and in tournal honor.

Taylor for four regiments will be compiled with, there can be no doubt if volunteers are lacking, a draft will be issued a meet the exigency. It is, however, of the utmo consequence that the troops should be speedily equipped and despatched to the seat of war. Gen. Taylors, brave, intrepid, sagacious and experienced as bis, dreads nothing but famine. He has but fiftee days' rations with him, though he may make the last thutty. He must therefore be succored, befor his troops are reduced to the last extremity. No or us troops are reduced to the last extremity. No or can be more thoroughly convinced of the braver and powers of endurance of our forces than we-bi and powers of cidurance of our forces than we-but when 2,300 men are surrounded by 8,000 of the flower of the Mexican army, commanded by their most skultul officers, the sheerest prudence would seek to piace them upon equal grounds with their adversary it would be a burning diagrace to the Government if the little army that has already been exposed to so much perd in the gigantic task of guarding the entire Fexon fromer, should be suffered to be cut up in beaut, or extenuated by servation, by a continuance of the enhabity vaciliating and procrassinating meatics bitherite pursued.

Gen. Taylor's works in front of Matamoras would be completed on the morning of the 28th at which time it was expected the fire would be opened on the city. Troops should not await the call of the Govarnor, as it will be a week before it can teach this place, but hurry to the relief of Point Issael, as by saving that place only will we have it in our power to render the army timely assistance. A large number of citizens also congregated in the Atmory, and when the meeting of the officers broke up, were very anxious to know what had been done. Gen. Smith made a few remarks, stating that the officers had merely me for regimental business. He, however, took occasion to say that he hoped and felt that the call for troops would neet a prompt response from the cuttizens. He said that the manner to raise the regiments would be to form companies of seventy-five meth, who would then exect their own Captain and First and Second Lieutenanis, and when ten companies were raised, they would be formed into a regiment and elect their own field officers, who would be commissioned by the Governor. All necessary equipments and provisions would be furnished them. The General will be in attendance at the Armory, and reports must be made to him.
