Tuesday morning, May 5, 1846. THE NORTHERN MAIL failed yesterday from beyond

Montgoinery. Irregularity in the mail service is again becoming frequent and annoying. It is with a satisfaction which we hardly know how to express, says the National Intelligencer, speaking of the vote of both branches of Congress on the Notice and charged recordingly arranged on the viscosity of the control o OFFICIAL.

NOTICE is hereby given that a contract has been entered into between the undersigned and Masses, Maline & Weisse, Proprietors of the BEE.

Notice of every While, and of a very large majority of the Pemocratic members of each House, but also of more than three-fourths of the members of both Houses of Congress.

This statement of the Intelligencer shews very large transminity prevailing among right common-sense men of the country, received not only the vote of every While, and of a very large

This statement of the Invalgences snews very clearly the almost perfect unanimity prevailing among the members of Congress, in favor of an honorable and pacific compromise of the Oregon difficulty.—
Forty-two Senators out of fifty-two, and one hundred and forty-two Representatives out of one hundred and eighty-six, when brought to the test, have dis-tinctly and deliberately declared in substance, by the report of the Committee of Conference, that the notice ought to be given, that it belongs to the Prenner of giving it, and that the attention of both Tovernments should be earnestly directed to the im-sortance of a speedy and amicable settlement of the fifteeners and disputes in relation to Oregon. Thus, nore than three-fourths of the members of the Nationd Legislature, recognize the great principle that the question of title to the whole territory being a doubtal one, should be arranged by negotiation, conces-ion and compromise, and that the subject is one minently susceptible of a satisfactory solution, without periling the peace now existing between two great nations, and involving both in the hazards and horrors of war.

Viewed politically, the vote is extremely significant. a both the Senate and the House, every Whig mem-er recorded his name in the affirmative. We have right to conclude therefore, that the Whig party eting through their representatives are unanimously tavor of a settlement of the controversy by negotic on There are a few Westernmembers of our part cho assert the validity of our title up to the Russiane, but these one and all, when brought up to those, practically demonstrated, by sustaining the re-With regard to the Democratic party, though more divided, a considerable majority uniting with the Whites, ossisted in procuring the passage of the reac-lation. Hence it follows that upon the Oregon question, all the Whigs and a large segment of the Demo-eracy are disposed to settle the difference by compre Polis may, with the certainty of the national approval, begin the work of negotiation. The notice will be the first step to this consummation. The joint oc-cupation ceasing, new and definite arrangements must be inside by the adverse parties. But who will make the first offer! A foolish point of honor seem to exists in respect to the renewal of negotiation – The United States having tendered a division at the this parallel, which was refused, conceives it he bity to await the propositions of the British Gover ment. Great Britain having subsequently offered to submit the question to arbitration, which was de-caned, fancies that it is due her dignity that negotiation should be opened by this country. A more ab-surd super-sensitiveness cannot well be imagined on either side. Here are two great nations at variance about a certain portion of territory—both willing to rrange the difficulty in the most friendly manner both, it may be, prepared to offer and accept substamally the same terms, and both through scruples the most fastidious and misplaced, reluction to take the test step, as if it could possibly involve the smallest erogation of national honor. If Great Britain doesno hoose to come forward, we trust that Mr. Polk wi have sufficient magnanimity, sufficient of that ge-nume high souled honor that cares not to cavil at a traw and create impediments where none exist, to creach the subject himself, and by a distinct proposi-tion bring the contending party to a definite under-tanding as to the mutual conditions upon which a ompromise may be effected.

New York.—On Tuesday last, the 28th April, a lection was to have been held throughout the State New York, for members of a Convention to mee In pursuance of an act requiring the people of the class pursuance of an act requiring the people of the State to adopt measures for reviewing and revising the Constitution. The contest has probably beer extremely spirited. It is difficult to say whether any another. Thus there are two Democrats and to Natives on the Whig ticket and so on. The sam incertainty of political lines of demarcation prevail a the country, and consequently it would puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer, to determine how the election rties has obtained the ascendancy, The rationale of his political Babel may be ton a the principles at stake. Among them are the re-noval of the property qualification now required of segroes before they can become electors—the settle-ment of the Anti-Rent troubles, a new senatorial and ment of the Anti-Rent troubles, a new senatorial and representative apportionment, new system of taxton, the question of internal improvements and a large number of local principles which have called forth factions and parts of factions in determined advocacy or bitter opposition. The abolitioniets, as usual are extremely active, and seem to have organizer, with a special griference to the question of negroes gifrage. These Whigs and Locofocos, to their mental, renerally discountenance the design of abolishing the restrictions now imposed on that class. We say generally, for the rule is not invariable—there are ultras on both sides, radicals who unite with ere are ultras on both sides, radicals who unite with here are utrass on non-maker, rancass who unite with the abolitionsts on this particular issue, and who may mable the latter to succeed in some of the closely ontested counties. At all events we shall know the

IMPROVEMENT IN THE MONEY MARKET.—The Philthe distribution of the 24th ult., states that the 'poli-ned horizon is brightening a little, and we may soon expect to see a better feeling visible in our financial riceles. The Oregon war question has assumed a much more pacific aspect, and, notice has been given that the independent treasury bill will be so amended and softened in the Senate as to render the change from the precent deposite bank system easy and comparatively unobjectionable. That clause in the bill which defers the payment of all government dues in specie until January will be a great source of relief to the banks, as it will give them time to make all the preparations that the change may require, with-out violently disturbing the money market. The warehousing bill, which it is proposed to bring for-ward in conjunction with the independent treasury, will also greatly soften its operation. Importers will pay duties only as they find markets for their com-modities, and when they are presumed to be in funds

Fig. 18 MONTHORERY.—On Thursday there was a destructive fire at Montgomery. Nine houses were consumed. The fire (says the Advertiser) commenced in the back part of the upper story of the building tomarly belonging to Mr. Philip Rodgers, and then occupied by Mr. Hugh Farrior. From this building the fire was communicated to Mrs. Reid's Hotel, the lower story only of which was occupied and so oncombuilding to building, to the store occupied by Dr. from building to building, to the store occupied by Dr. A. McBryde, at the corner of Market and Perry streus. Here, by the active exertions of the members of the Hook and Ladder Company, aided by other citizens, the fire was checked, and Hanrick's orner store was saved, though three times on fire.

STORM.—Last Monday night there was a heavy and destructive sorm at Columbus, (i.e.) The Times asysthat very soon after the rain the river began to rise and swelled in about six hours to the unprecedented height (in the same time) of 15 fect. While we write it is still rising, and if the rain, above have
