We learn that an engagement had taken place be ween the United States and Mexican forces. The critical sa alar asive can learn are as follows— General Taylor having on the evening of the 3rd fit the entrenchment with a detachment of Unite states frough for the purpose of opening a community wing particulars recovered from Capt. Philips, in adtion to the information atready furnished.

In addition to the following from our extra of sterday, we will state a few other particulars, for hich we are indebted principally to Capt. Philips, the steam abip. New York.

When Gen. Paylor left Point Isabel, there was to the slightest doubt entertained that he would note to cut his way to his enteretherists flivough setty superior turnibers of the enemy, who were

It seems the store every way reasonable to suppose that a decisive and bloody battle was fought yeaterday, and we wait with almost painful anxiety to hear the result by the next arrival. Fall thany a gallant Texian will now enry the few brate spirits who with Walkar to lead them, have such addresses opportunity to revenge the many wrongs and insults and cruelties inflicted upon their country."

As war with Mexico has now regularly begun, we may expect that the system of privateering will be extensively caried on by adventures: from all countries, sailing under Mexican colors. We trust that the Government will take immediate measures to secure our shippers from the depredations of these semi-piratical craft. There is a presty large squadron aircady in the Gulf bas we presume it will be ordered to blockade various Mexican ports, and they will be precluded from crassing about, and exerting the constant visitiance required to access the the constant vigilance required to ensure the safe transit of our merchantmen. We apprehend that an
