Thursday morning, Nov. 19, 1846.

Yesterday's mail was incomplete. The newspa-iers as far North as Philadelphia, some through with From New York our advices are he provides of Annual Advertisers is limited to communication between New York and Baltimore had been interrupted and the papers of the 4th from the latter city contain, theretore, no intelligence from New York later than that occived by mail. The most intense anxiety is felt here as every where to learn the result of the elections in the Empire State which took place on the 3d.

If the mail arrive through to-day—an important conmitton—we shall, without much doubt, obtain sufficient returns to ascertain who has been chosen Govmor. We observe that on the 3d at Philadelphia there was quite a storm of wind and rain. These atmospheric convulsions have grown portentous since the memorable tempest which, on the 13th October, And Full state of teering.

Fr Democracy shrink and cower before the blast and the pelting rain, the hard fisted huge pawed Whigs profit by the turmoil to fill the ballot boxes with their votes. Such, at least, is the explanation which Locofocois offers for its recent defeats, and we think in justice it should be entitled to the full benefit of the plea. It is perhaps idle to speculate upon the result of a contest when the intelligence is now winging its way Port of New Orleans.

10 us at full speed; but we have been so often asked for our opinion, that we cannot better respond to the implied compliment to our political segacity, than by offering our views, even at the risk of being proved a cause hopeless in New York for the nonce—that is, we believed that Silas WRIGHT would be reflected y at least twenty thousand majority. We beheled the Whigs in the utmost confusion-many of them repudiating their candidate, and others giving him a and and reluctant support. The Democracy, mean-while, seemed to us united, harmonious and enthus-usine. Since then, though distraction and disaffection still prevail in our ranks, there has been good ground or the belief that the adversary is in not much bette pinglit. Both parties number many who are oppose

Ur. Young's supposed anti-rent partialities latter will undoubtedly receive some Democratic supwhich he is said to favor. The Native and Abolition candidates will, affect the usual party vote—the latter not materially, but the former will carry off many Whigs. In view of all these facts, our housest opinion mehnes us to the belief that Silas WRIGHT was elect ed Governor of New York on the 3d instant, by a not over six thousand, possibly by a very close vote. We can hardly unagine any other result, despite the confident predictions of some of the Whig papers. Mr. Whister is an immensely strong man, and though his part) are at sixes and sevens, we have seen too frequency of how little practical force are Locofoco dissentions in restraining the party from voting the regular sicket, to believe that these schisms and bickerings will rujer - han much. There is a shade of doubt only as to the result, and it arises from the strange position of the several parties to the contest. This uncertainty is barrly sufficient to kindle a feeble hope that the Whots of New York may have at the last moment reconciled all their differences, and emulating the glorions triumphs in Maine, Maryland, Florida, Pensylvatora and Ohio, cast their united as Trages for the Whig nominee, and routed Locofocoisin in the Empire

it both the sanguine and desponding, we have no skill in putting forth oracles. The New York election has so completely overadowed all minor contests, that little has been said of New Jersey in which an election for five Congress-men and a State Legislature was held on the same day. The following are the Congressional nomina-

then and the Whigs with the loss of the First and Second Districts; the Third is hopelessly Locofoco; the Fourth Whig If the Natives do not carry off too many tishy Whigs" we will elect four members out of the five. The Legislature is somewhat doubtful from the same cause. In the close counties which usually decide the political complexion of the Legislature, the Natives are running tickets, for no other purpose, it would seem, than to help Locotocoism. We trust that in spite of these obstacles the Jersey Blues will come out victorious. Upon the next Legislature will devolve the choice of a Senator of the United States, in the place of Mr. Miller.
