LEGAL ADVERTISING

NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 18, 1846.

MAGNE & WEBB, PROPRIETORS,
No. 81 Chartres street.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, Nov. 18, 1846.

THE NORTHERN Mail-Billed from Beyond Charterhouse.

The next Congress.

We have now a sufficient number of definitely voted-for men from those States which have voted to elect their delegates to the next Congress, for each of the Northern States. No Administration intended for less than two years, will be required.

Admiral Smith's speech in the House will be published in full, and charged accordingly.

Advertisers are requested to make up their charges
for the next two months, for each language, and for each advertiser.

The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to advertisements strictly about the business of their advertisers.
