On Monday night about 12 o'clock, an unfortunate affair occurred on the premises of Adonia Robinson, a creole, litting some three miles from the city, in which a volunteer named Hudgine, belonging to the company from Tso-calousa county, was instantly killed, and two others of the some corns were severely, perhaps myrally, wounded. Yesterday morning, Robinson, who is informally charged with having shot the deceased, delivered himself up for trial, and in the afternoon an investigation into the matter was commenced before Justice Wiggins, but before the examination of all the witnesses was completed, by consent of parties, the case was adjourned to this morning at 12 o'clock. Mikeh excitement prevailed in the community throughout the day in relation to the affair, and we refrain from publishing any of the rumors in relation tolit, until the pending judicial investigation shall be completed.
