Facts for Workmen.

We avail ourselves of the figures of the Tribune, to show the flood of goods that have been pouted upon our market through the operation of the tarriff of 1846. No one can read the details of the operation of this law, and reads the conclusion that home labor has been sacrified without the least return.

The following table shows the exports from England to the United States of plant calicoses: 1846, 1847 Increase, Yards, 10,630,215 41,519,244 30,579,029.
