Saturday Morning, June 24, 1848.

The Ratification Meeting to-night.

We presume there is no necessity to invoke the presence of the Whigs to the Grand Ratification Meeting, to be held this Evening, in Canal street. They will doubtless rally in their strength and join their grand shouts to the myriad voices that from Maine to the Rio Grande, are pealing forth their notes of gladness at the nomination of TAYLOR & FILLMORE. Let us show Locofocoism, in advance, that the Crescent City is prepared to sustain Old Zach, by such a majority as she has never before given to any candidate.

NO MAIL.—We learn by Telegraph, that the mail steamer Creole, which left Mobile, on Thursday with the mail, broke her shaft and was compelled to return. The Eastern mail was therefore a dead failure yesterday. We only several items of intelligence from the express news received by the Picayune.

GEN. CASS AND GEN. TAYLOR.

Our readers doubtless remember that during the Congressional session of 1846-47, a resolution was introduced into the House of Representatives by Mr. COOKE, a member from Tennessee, returning the thanks of Congress to Gen. TAYLOR and his officers, for their gallant conduct at PALO ALTO, RESACA DE LA PALMA and other engagements. The resolution, when Mr. THOMPSON, a Locofoco Representative from Mississippi, could succeed by FIGLEY, of Indiana, OLIVER, of Ohio, or LEVIN, appointed a committee to wait upon the President, and request him to order the Mexican flags captured at Monterey. This committee, consisting of Messrs. CASS, BUTLER and others, discharged the mean and servile task, and in due time was in readiness to receive the ensigns which it bore. Upon taking the vote, it was found that of the large majority of Locofocos in the United States Senate, FIFTEEN only had the moral hardihood to oppose the striking out of the preamble. One of this contemptible minority was LEWIS CASS.

We call upon every friend of Gen. TAYLOR, every admirer of that dauntless and high souled warrior, to bear in mind that when the Senate of the United States, composed, as it was, of a large majority of OLD ZACH's political opponents, had the manliness to efface from the resolution of thanks the acrimonious insult by which Locofocism had so grossly outraged its own chivalry and humanity, CASS stepped in concert with the cushioned chair—far from the scene of danger—clustered in the attempt to dishonor the Hero whose life had been often risked in bloody fields for his country."

There is, however, yet another circumstance connected with the abortive outrage which it is proper to recall. The Locofoco party has since nominated, as its candidate for Vice President, Gen WILLIAM O. BUTLER, one of those very men who fought at Monterey, and who, in his capacity as the companion-in-arms of TAYLOR, and a general officer, approved of the capitulation and signed the articles. This caps the climax of duplicity and intrigue. The Locofoco profession to be indignant at the terms granted to the Mexicans at Monterey, they push their pretended wrath so far as to endeavor to inflict a stain upon Gen. TAYLOR's military fame for the act, and then they coolly nominate, upon the same ticket, Gen. CASS, who, in the United States Senate, voted to retain the censure, and Gen. BUTLER, who advised and approved the very measure which CASS denounces.

The People are not likely to forget these things. They will visit Gen. CASS with ample retribution for his unmanning effort to blast the reputation of OLD HERO and READY. Their verdict in NOVEMBER will prove that while they are ready to reward the unmindful soldier, they are equally prepared to punish his defamers and traducers.

It is now a settled fact that the Old Hero of Buena Vista can by no means accept the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention. Immediately went a letter to this city for publication, declining that the Louisiana delegation had any authority whatever to declare that he was willing to abide the decision of the Convention, and withdraw his name if not nominated by the Whig party.—Evening Mercury.

This assertion is so coolly put forth by our contemporary, we have upon the strongest possible grounds to believe, incorrect. Gen. TAYLOR has not written a line to parties since his nomination, and after considerable enquiry among those most trusted and confidential friends, we can state with the utmost confidence that no letter can arrive any such denial has been sent to any person in this city for publication. If there be such a letter, we call on those who received it to produce it. But there is nothing of the kind, and the report is only one of a thousand circulated by prejudiced friends and avowed enemies of the Old Hero, to affect his standing with the Whig party.

MR. WEBSTER, we learn, cordially supports the Whig nominations for President and Vice President.

SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLICAN IN LOUISIANA.—The Red River Yeomanry Republican—a thorough going Locofoco sheet, which bears the names of the nominees of the Baltimore Convention at the head of its columns, comes out in a calm and well considered article upon the rejection of Mr VAN's resolution, and notification to refuse to support candidates who refuse to acknowledge the conquest right of the South in the late acquisitions of territories. From the tone of the article, we should infer that the Editor has given a temporary truce to party and his sense of duty to the South.

BARNBURNER MEETING.—The Barnburner democracy of New York city, met in their respective wards on Wednesday evening, the 14th, to elect delegates to the Utica Convention on the 22nd inst. The official call appears in the Globe, headed thus: "Free soil—free labor—free speech—free trade—free men."

A NEW TICKET.—The following ticket appears at the head of some advertisements for political meetings in the N. Y. Tribune, intended to catch the Barnburners: President—David Wilmot, of Pennsylvania; for Vice President—Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky.

THE COMMERCIAL REVIEW.—We have received from the publishers, the May and June number, (a double one) of this excellent publication. It contains among other articles of interest, a communication upon MEXICO, by the Hon. Joel R. Poinsett, which discloses some valuable facts.

HAVANA.—By the arrival last evening, of the brig Salvadora, Captain Evans, we have received files of Havana papers to the 15th inst. They are destitute of news.

DEATH OF MR. TOOMEY.—We regret to announce the demise of WM. L. TOOMEY, Esq., of Natchitoches—a gentleman of high promise and very decided talent, who formerly represented that Parish in the State Legislature, with distinguished ability.

THE SIXTEEN MILLION LOAN TAKEN.—A Telegraphic despatch to the Editors of the Picayune, states that the Sixteen million loan has been taken at a premium which will yield the Government over half a million of dollars above the nominal amount of the loan. The Pic says:

Upon opening the bids there was awarded to Messrs Corcoran & Riggs, for themselves, Baring Brothers & Co., and others, the amount of fourteen millions ninety-six thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars, at a premium of 3 02 per cent. To the other bidders, there were awarded one million nine hundred and two thousand two hundred and fifty dollars, at premiums running from 3 06 to 3 81 per cent. From the manner in which the despatch is given, there may be error in these figures, but, we think, nothing material. It is gratifying to see the credit of the country so high and firm.

EX-PRESIDENT VAN BUREN.—The N. Y. Express says that Mr. Ex-President Van Buren will not run for President as the Barnburners candidate, "but he will, we are pretty well assured," adds the Express, "head the Barnburners electoral ticket in New York." John Van Buren is making the tour of the State.

THE ABOLITION NOMINATIONS.—The "Liberty League," an offshoot of the "Liberty Party," held a convention at Rochester, N. Y., on the 2nd inst., and nominated William Odel for Governor of that State, and Judge Anderson, for Lieutenant Governor. Gerret Smith is the League candidate for President. A full electoral ticket was formed.

FROM MEXICO.—The steamship Palmetto arrived at an early hour yesterday morning, bringing dates from Vera Cruz to the 19th inst. During her passage four of the men belonging to the Michigan volunteers, died, and one was lost overboard. All the volunteers were expected at Jalapa on the 21st inst. Mr. Sevier was looked for at Vera Cruz on the 19th.

Conspiracies for the overthrow of the government have been detected in the city of Mexico and various arrests were made. The feeling of dissatisfaction pervades San Luis, Aguas Calientes, and other departments.

The news otherwise is of little interest.

FROM MARTINIQUE.—The bark Merlin, at New York, from St. Thomas, brings some additional particulars of the insurrection at Martinique. The Journal of Commerce, says:

The brig Fox arrived at St. Thomas, from Martinique, on the 28th May. The captain reported that on the 21st ult., the negroes revolted, and at the date of his sailing, the 23d, held and quieted away over at parts of the Island, excepting Fort Royal; the troops, by order of the authorities, offered no resistance, and remained quiet while the insurgents disarmed them. The armed-war officers (French on landing, were placed on ward-fare (the colored nation, with a chicken cock attached.) They threatened some few white families, who were massed in them, beside burning fifteen or twenty houses, the first day of the revolt, since which they have committed no further excesses.

They offered no molestation to the American vessels in port, but allowed their boats to go off at all times, while French and all others were not allowed ashore after sundown.

CAPT. W. also reports that the morning before the alarm coaches were blowing in all directions, and the streets, and in many roads and approaches to St Pierre, were literally covered with negroes, marching from the plantations upon the city.

LATER FROM VENEZUELA.—The N. Y. Herald of the 15th, has the following:

By private letters in town from Maracaibo, up to the 1st May, we understand that Monagas troops are quiet, as the last accounts, were within a short distance of that city, and met with a decided repulse from the Maracaibo people, and that upwards of 1000 were taken prisoners, and a large number killed. The particulars we have not learned. This, however, is the most decided success the Paez party have met with. We are almost sorry to hear it, as the probability is this will lengthen the struggle between the parties, and thus tend to keep up the civil war to distract and impoverish the beautiful Republic of Venezuela.

LATER FROM BRAZIL.—The ship Ellerslie, Capt. White, arrived yesterday morning, with files of the Jornal do Comercio, published at Rio de Janeiro to the 20th of April.

The U. S. steam frigate Alleghany, Captain Hunter, from Norfolk, had arrived out. The U. S. transport Erie, Commr. Watson, from the Pacific, arrived at Rio on the 28th of April, and would sail again soon for home.

The frigate Brandywine was lying in the harbor.

The Brazilian House of Deputies assembled on the 25th April. Their meetings, up to the 26th, had been merely preparatory ones, and devoid of interest. The news of John Q. Adams's death was received at Rio on the 26th of April.

From Bahia accounts had been received to the 12th April; everything was quiet there. Senor Joaquim Jose Pinheiro de Vasconcellos had been appointed presiding officer of the province.

Quite a severe southwest gale had been experienced at Rio on the 20th of April, during which one vessel, a Brazilian, the brig Rosa, was lost, and many passed in great danger; among them the British man-of-war brig Spy.

No late news had been received from Montevideo or Buenos Ayres.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Hanford (Conn.) Times, of the 13th inst., says:

We understand that Gov. Isaac Toucey, of this city, has been appointed by the President to the office of Attorney General of the United States, in the place of Mr. Clifford, who goes to Mexico as Peace Commissioner. The President's letter, we have been informed, tendering the appointment, was received by Gov. Toucey on Saturday last.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14.

AWFUL MURDER.—An awful murder was committed at an early hour this morning in Moyamensing. An insane man named Bew killed Mr. W. Johnson, who had been placed in the cell with the crazy person in order to prevent him from doing himself harm. Mr. Johnson was literally cut to pieces.

Langlelot, the murderer of Mrs. Rademacher, will bear his death warrant read this afternoon by Sheriff Lear. He is to be hung on the 20th October.

City Intelligence.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—Susan Coyle was yesterday tried on the charge of stealing about $100 from Mary Delany, and found guilty. On motion of the Attorney General, it was ordered that the money which was found on the prisoner be paid over to Mrs. Delany. A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of J. Rodriguez, charged with assault and battery. The Court was next occupied with the trial of the notorious Jack Williams, charged with assault and battery, with intent to kill. The jury, after a short absence, returned a verdict of guilty; the prisoner was remanded.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Cannon will not hold Court next week, on account of certain repairs to be made to the Court Room.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Kennedy, was yesterday, occupied with appeals from Justices of the peace.

NATIONAL SALUTE.—A National salute was fired yesterday, by Major Gally's Artillery, on the Place d'Armes, in honor of the safe arrival in this City of Major General Butler, the Commander in chief of the American Army in Mexico.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—Early yesterday morning, a most melancholy accident occurred within the limits of the Third Municipality. A man, apparently a German, named Jacob Nelson, fell from a skiff moored in the river, opposite Port street 3rd Municipality, and was drowned. The unfortunate man was but a short time since in this city; he came from Cincinnati, where he left a wife and three small children.

BURGLARY.—On Thursday night last, Mr. E. W. Herrick's store, No. 74 Canal street, was entered by some burglars who took therefrom, five boxes of wax candles, valued at about one hundred dollars. Mr. Herrick having strong reason to believe that the aforesaid five boxes of candles were concealed in a store, corner of Royal and Canal streets, filed yesterday morning, an affidavit before Recorder Genois, praying that a warrant be issued to search the above store. His Honor granted the request.

ASSAULT WITH A DANGEROUS WEAPON.—Jane Kean, a free woman of color, yesterday made affidavit before Recorder Genois, stating that on Wednesday evening last, being in her house, corner of Conti and Dauphin streets, she was grossly insulted by one Alexandre Leblanc, a free man of color. She further asserted that said Leblanc drew a pistol at her and snapped the same on her person. The accused was yesterday, arrested and gave bail for his further appearance before Recorder Genois.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—Joseph Williams, was yesterday, arrested by the Second Municipality police, charged with concealing himself on board the schooner lying at the New Basin, with intent to commit a robbery. The accused, being brought up before Recorder Baldwin, was ordered to find a voucher.

COMMITTED.—Mrs. Berry, was yesterday, brought up before Recorder Baldwin, charged with assaulting and striking Caroline Horner. She was committed for trial before the First District Court.

BILL EUBANKS AGAIN.—Officer Trescazes, of the First Municipality police, arrested yesterday morning, the notorious Bill Eubanks, alias Bill St. Louis, as a suspicious character.

NEW WORKS.—Our thanks are due the publishers, through J. B. Steel, 14 Camp street, for the following new publications:

Hastings on Yellow Fever.—This is one of the innumerable treatises on a disease whose mysterious origin has called forth a thousand theories, and to whose treatment every possible variety of medicament has been applied. The work before us seems to be the production of a thoughtful mind, aided by enlarged experience and attentive study.

Eastern Life, Present and Past, by Harriet Martineau. One of the most delightful works of travel it has been our good fortune to peruse. There is freshness and vigor about Miss Martineau's style, a truthfulness and graphic force in her descriptions, and a power of strong and faithful representation in her narrative, that communicate an irresistible charm to her writings. She, has, too, in her composition, a vein of poetic fervor, but it is subdued and restrained by the control of a disciplined and reflective mind.

Knapp's Chemical Technology. Vol. 1st.—Here we have a work of practical science of immense value to all who are engaged in the arts and manufactures. The latest discoveries of the application of chemistry to the useful and ornamental pursuits, are given with the utmost fulness of explanation and illustration. It is, in short, a work that is indispensable to all enlightened and intelligent persons who are engaged in occupations that minister to the comfort and welfare of mankind.

De Maulcon, or the Knight with the Iron Hand.—One of Dumas' agreeable and fascinating novels, descriptive of Moorish and Spanish manners three or four centuries ago.

The Forty-five Guardsmen.—This is a sequel to the charming story of the Lady of Monsoreau. It is likewise by Dumas.

The Seven Capital Sins—Pride.—This is the first of the series of romances promised by Eugene Sue, to illustrate the seven capital sins. The press generally has spoken in high terms of this effort.

Council of Municipality No. One.

SITTING OF MONDAY, June 19th, 1848.

The Council met this day pursuant to adjournment.

The members present were the Hon. J. Genois, Recorder and President; Aldermen Blanque, Barnes, Barthe, Dupineuil, Duncan, Dupre, Fabre, Gourdain, Lilly, McNeil, O'Neal and Wolfe—12. Absent—Aldermen Giquel, Hagan and Lanata—3. Mr. Gutlie is absent on leave—1.

On motion of Mr. McNeil, the absence of Mr. Hagan was excused.

The minutes of the last sitting were read and approved.

On motion of Mr. Wiltz, the following report, made by the Surveyor, was read:

New Orleans, June 17th, 1848.

To the President and members of the Council of Municipality No. One.

GENTLEMEN.—Several members of your honorable body having, at the last sitting of the 15th inst., expressed a wish to have my opinion on the levelling and grades to be given to the sidewalks in our fourth Territorial District, I will observe, that the paddle wheel of the engine can work at a depth of not far below the generality of the lowest grounds.

2. The contract for the paved street, ordered by the 16th September 1842, given to Philip Veltchi, at the rate of $12 000 per square, The contractor has not completed the work, although from the declarations of his contract, and to put the streets in good repair, but some about three months after the time expired, but in a state that the public could not pass over it, and that was in a wretched condition, and are almost impassable. The contract will expire on the 21st September next.

3. The contract for the cleaning of the streets, repairing and keeping in order of the Third District, between Canal Carondelet and Bayou St. John, at the rate of $1 50 per square, expires on the 1st of July next, and I am informed that the contractor wrote again to the Council, on the 21st of June 1847, and again obtained a prolongation of time for one year. The year being almost at an end, the contractor wrote again to the Council, on the 21st of June 1847, and again obtained a prolongation of time for one year more, which will expire on the 20th of June, 1848.

During that time, and from the 21st March 1845, to the 30th of May, 1848, the contractor had laid the above mentioned streets paved, with the exception of Bienville street, which will be completed in a few weeks.

The paving of said streets, has cost to the Municipality,

The probable cost of Bienville street, to the Municipality, is:	$ 151,208 36
	18,000
Making a total of	$ 172,208 36

Here I must observe, that the specifications for the paving of the above mentioned streets, are the most complete and explicit, that can be made—that the contractor has not always followed them, and has, in several instances, done very bad work which was, nevertheless, received and settled for by the Municipality.

The paving, the contractor is now doing in Bienville street, can be classed amongst the bad ones—he placed in many places stones ascribed for in his contract, he uses Bank and refused stones; instead of laying the gutter stones, on a bed of Lake shells, he gravel he laid them in the mud, and instead of laying the round stones paving on a bed of gravel sand, at least seven inches thick, he is laying and has laid them on clay.

2. The next contract of great importance, is the one for the erection of the buildings and Engines for the drying of asphalt Trotoir. The contract, was, on the 12th of October, 1846, given to J. Bell, for the sum of $38,500, payable in notes at one two, three four and five years, with 6 per cent interest from and after.

The Engines and buildings have already been reported by the Improvement Committee, and the Surveyor, my predecessor, the first, second, third and fourth payments having been made and according to a resolution passed by the Council, on the 19th of October, 1846, it was ordered that no payment about to be made before the acceptance and report of the work by the Improvement Committee and the Surveyor.

As regards the last payment, I will state that on the 16th inst. Mr Coumbus having informed me that his work was completed and ready for appraisal, I went and examined said work and found that after rising in front of the paddle wheels, a cupola on the roof of the building and a bridge on the dividing Canal, had not been made, and therefore informed the contractor that his work would not be accepted by me before the completion of the above mentioned works. I will however state, that the paddle wheel of the engine can work at a depth of not far below the generality of the lowest grounds.

3. The contract for the paved street, ordered by 16th September 1842, given to Philip Veltchi, at the rate of $12 000 per square. The contractor has not completed the work, although from the declarations of his contract, and to put the streets in good repair, but some about three months after the time expired, but in a state that the public could not pass over it, and that was in a wretched condition, and are almost impassable. The contract will expire on the 21st September next.
