Mail Accounts by the Cambria.

The mail of yesterday brought us detailed advices from Europe, by the Steamship Cambria, which arrived at Boston, at 6 o'clock, on the morning of the 30th ult., having left Liverpool on the 17th June. We proceed to give the news in full, to the hazard of republishing those points previously transmitted by Telegraph.

The Steamship Caledonia, Captain Leach, arrived at Liverpool, on the 13th ult., from Boston in 13 1-2 days passage.

The Spanish Minister Xavier Isturiz, has left England without the customary formalities of an audience to take leave of Her Majesty, and we must infer from Lord John Russell's expressions that his departure is to be considered a measure of retaliation for the expulsion of Sir H Bulwer, from Spain. There is, however, no reason to apprehend that more serious differences of hostilities will arise.

True bills have been found by the grand jury at the June session of the Central Criminal Court, London, against Messrs Ernest Jones, Fussell, Vernon, Looney, Sharpe and Williams, the Chartist leaders, for sedition.

It is said that the Pope has expressed a most anxious desire to visit Ireland.

The Lords of the Treasury have prohibited the exportation of arms from England, to be employed in hostilities against Denmark.

M. William Tell Poussin has been appointed Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from France to the Republic of the United

[illegible]

The Comte de Mersael, the Spanish Commissioner, after making overtures, through the Spanish Minister, did not obtain any recognition from Viscount Palmerston or the government, and after several ineffectual audiences with the late government, the Count left London for Spain.

The Navigation Laws—The navigation laws were still under consideration in the House of Parliament. Many of the friends of free trade proposed to demolish the existing laws by one bill, and thus to place the whole carrying trade of Great Britain forever in, coastwise and coasting, open to the competition of every vessel which could navigate the privileges. Some of the advocates of free trade, however, are not prepared to go so far as no one at the present time. Among that number is Robert Peel, who reserves his opinion on the question of relaxing the coasting trade in the bill.

Italian—Agitation Subsiding—There is little or no important news from the seat of the war this week. The inflammation of the mind of Young Europe has not yet completed. The consideration of an armistice so much desired by Austria has been postponed for a few days at the request of Commissioners from Milan, in order to give the people an opportunity of expressing their wishes on the subject. The general tone of the Milanese papers is not favorable to the proposed armistice. Meanwhile [illegible] under the effects of the defeat he encountered at Lonnek; and remains in the neighborhood of Milan, where the people seem disposed to consider that he is sufficiently occupied at home in the Kalmer. The Austrian army is [illegible] to advance, and, at the same time, threatens to [illegible] the insurrectionary movements in several parts of the country. The Pope is [illegible] sympathy with the Holy Father, and [illegible] the patriarchy of Venice.

Germany—Frankfort Parliament—[illegible] the Regent Archduke, and [illegible] Mr. John O'Connell [illegible] Mr. Sheil [illegible] Mr. Wyse [illegible] Mr. Smith O'Brien [illegible] Mr. Duncombe [illegible] Mr. Roebuck [illegible] Mr. Bernal [illegible] Mr. Ward [illegible] Mr. Hume [illegible] Mr. Wakley [illegible] Mr. Cobden [illegible] Mr. Bright [illegible] Mr. Gibson [illegible] Mr. Labouchere [illegible] Mr. Macaulay [illegible] Mr. Grote [illegible] Mr. Milnes [illegible] Mr. Ellice [illegible] Mr. Hawes [illegible] Mr. Strutt [illegible] Mr. Ewart [illegible] Mr. Thornely [illegible] Mr. Thompson [illegible] Mr. Hindley [illegible] Mr. Brotherton [illegible] Mr. Wilson [illegible] Mr. Aldam [illegible] Mr. Ingham [illegible] Mr. Wilkinson [illegible] Mr. Williams [illegible] Mr. Hutt [illegible] Mr. Bowring [illegible] Mr. Hawkins
