Gen. Taylor's Letter.

We think that the letter of Gen. Taylor to be referred from the journal of the annexed report, by our agents. It is taken from the columns of the New York Express, a paper, which as an avowed supporter of Mr. Clay, and consequently with the Whig party, can scarcely be the one all the more changed to a Democratic New York paper, as connected with the Cass interest. Now Messrs. Van Buren and Charles F. Adams. There is not a paper in that publication, United States—with the single exception of the Cass and Van Buren, a Cass paper in Louisiana—that is not denouncing and slanders slavery and slaveholders with more ferocious zeal and intense malignity than it is same Boston Republican. In its hatred of General Taylor it is not only surpassed by its crawling subservience towards MARTIN VAN BUREN. It is quite sufficient for the Republican that General Taylor is a Slaveholder and a Southerner, and a Southern and a Northern Democrat, to induce an unparalleled attack, and in that sense to have old Zach defended, by the same Democratic papers, as the Whig candidate for the Presidency of Louisiana.

The following extract from the infamous sheet we censure, is due to the people of Louisiana, and of the South, whether slave-holders themselves, or connected with slaveholders, the reasons why Northern Abolitionists and Locofocos are so interested in their hostility to Gen TAYLOR. They will see that a direct effort is made to crush the whole old soldier, because he happens to be born South of Mason & Dixon's Line, and cultivates his plantation by the aid of that labor which is indispensable to the prosperity of the South. It is upon principles that General TAYLOR is such a terror to the Abolitionists, and upon the ground that he is a Southern man with Southern principles, and who, if elected, will assuredly maintain those anti-Southern views and doctrines by which his entire career has been prominently characterized. Will you abandon ZACHARY TAYLOR because he is a SLAVEHOLDER? Let the ballot-box in November prove that you will not.

From the Boston Republican.

GEN TAYLOR A BUYER OF MEN & WOMEN

People have not forgotten the old warning and affectedly indignant manner in which the Democratic papers denied that the Government had bought $10 000 worth of slaves in Washington for the plantation on the Rio Grande. Zachary himself replied only to regret that the report was not correct—that he had not the money to expend—but the virtuous Democratic editors raised in a very violent fashion about the infamous slanderer upon the old General. Now it appears, as connected or not as being a grey mare, and the new papers report him as having stolen a black horse, it is not considered that the mistake of the newspapers is to call it a blunder. So it will be a blunder to say that the opponents of Gen T of doing him injustice by saying that he has bought slaves in one market for one plantation, when the truth happens to be that he has bought them in another market for another plantation. This General Taylor has bought slaves can not be denied. The proof is at hand. Here it is, as we find it in the Columbus (Ohio) Standard:

GEN. TAYLOR AND SLAVERY.

To a friend in the South we are indebted for the information and documents below. Gen Taylor appears in a new and interesting position. The candidate for the Presidency of this free country of Ohio is found, quietly purchasing human beings with money from the National Treasury. On the 4th of June, while Southern houses and Northern doughfaces are on their way to Buffalo, the candidate for Ohio in their pets is seen attending the sale in the negro auctioning establishment of Gaines and the auctioneer of his purchases. And this slave trader, even Northern men, have been sacrificed enough to consigne with Washington, have been dishonest enough to claim for him a position similar to Jefferson's, and have even argued that Henry Clay, whose noble life has been one continued exertion in the cause of freedom, is no better than he.

Of the numerous letters Taylor has written, can say man-slave one containing even a single line expressing his regret that the very should exist. Traffic of this city of Columbus have letters from him they dare not show us, do they contain anything in favor of freedom?—One word this indicates even the least liberality on the subject? Has he ever yet offered liberty to a single one of those human beings, the fruit of whose uncompensated labors he enjoys?—Has he ever done any one thing that would recommend him to a Christian community of free people? No, he is a slave trader, a negro and cotton planter, with all the interests and prejudices of his peculiar situation. In fine, he stands confessed an ignorant, slave-trading soldier, owing his nomination to the fraudulent acts of the Louisiana delegation, and trusting to contentment and deception for success.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug 4, 1848.

DEAR SIR: I herewith transmit to you a copy of the Deed of Sale from John Hagard, Sr., to Gen. Taylor, of a plantation, horses, and slaves, &c. Since General Taylor's return from Mexico he has also purchased slaves. In May last he purchased, in the name of his son, Richard Taylor, four slaves of Wm. M. Williams. On the 6th of June last he purchased of B. M. Campbell two slaves for the sum of $1500. He inspected the negroes and examined them to see if they were sound. Gave his draft on the Canal Bank of this city.
