The New-Orleans Bee.

No. 81 VOL. IX.—NEW SERIES. } OFFICIAL PAPER OF GENERAL COUNCIL AND FIRST MUNICIPALITY.....NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1849. { MAGNE & WEISSE, Proprietors
VOL. XXIII.—WHOLE No. 5814. No. 83 CHARTRES STREET.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee

Friday Morning, Feb. 2, 1849.

Traitors in the South.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writing upon the subject of the agitation of slavery in the halls of Congress, and the consequent absence of his Southern friends, says:

"The Southern members of Congress are not to be blamed for their absence. Those who would be the most efficient in debate and danger, and [illegible] Congress, are the Southern men. [illegible] the Northern members, [illegible] the Northern people, would willingly [illegible] the Union. The Editors, Committees [illegible] the men who proclaim disunion [illegible] that, if the Wilmot Proviso [illegible] will adopt a resolution of the [illegible] to the Southern [illegible] Southern [illegible] Northern men, who, if they party was in power to [illegible] would gain a seat in the Cabinet, or the Senate Proves by [illegible] and with [illegible] and [illegible] Congress [illegible] Those are the [illegible] Northern [illegible] Southern [illegible] Southern [illegible] South