

WATER AND COALS. We have obtained a large quantity of water and coals for sale at a low price. The water is pure and soft, and the coals are of the best quality. We have also a large quantity of firewood for sale at a low price. All orders will be promptly filled.

THE NEW-ORLEANS DAILY DECEMBER. Published every day except on Sundays and public holidays. Price per annum $10.00. Price per copy 25 cents. The paper contains all the news from New Orleans and other parts of Louisiana, as well as a variety of advertisements and notices.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT. TREASURY DEPARTMENT. High Maxell, to take effect from the 20th June 1849. Also appointments in the War, Navy, and other departments.

COMMERCE. The weather is calm and clear, and the trade is active. There is a steady demand for goods, and prices are generally stable. The market for cotton and sugar is particularly strong.

NOTICES. Various notices regarding legal proceedings, business transactions, and public affairs. These include notices of auctions, court cases, and government orders.

CANDIDATES. A list of candidates for various positions, including members of the Council and other municipal offices. The list includes names and brief descriptions of their qualifications.

ADVERTISEMENTS. A collection of short advertisements for various services and goods, including real estate, legal services, and general merchandise.