TO THE POLLS.

The canvass is over; the period for argument is passed, and that for ACTION has arrived. The free men of New Orleans, in common with those of the entire Union, are this day called upon to exercise the most sacred privilege that a free man can possess. They are to elect a President of the United States. They are to choose their Chief Magistrate for the four succeeding the fourth of March next! In a few hours which will be performed in no less than [illegible] of their partnership. It has been said that a people is free because the sages [illegible] framed the Constitution regulating their civil [illegible] and because [illegible] the appreciation of [illegible] which are based upon [illegible] capacity for self-government.

[illegible] two candidates presented for the [illegible] of Louisiana—ZACHARY TAYLOR and LEWIS CASS. We have [illegible] to the [illegible] during the campaign which [illegible] every right thinking and unbiased mind [illegible] the superiority of the claims of TAYLOR to those advanced by the supporters of Cass. We have shown you, fellow-citizens, that ZACHARY TAYLOR is emphatically an honest man in [illegible] a virtuous citizen; a soldier whom in the camp and at the council has deserved the confidence and esteem that can adorn and dignify humanity; a man whose principles are those of the honest and temperate republican; a man whose sentiments are always [illegible] whose actions are always consistent; whose thoughts and feelings are always noble and [illegible]. The vicious tongue of slander has [illegible] against him in vain. Calumny [illegible] a [illegible] upon the purity of [illegible] character has been [illegible] and [illegible] honor, and conduct [illegible] the party and welfare of his country. [illegible] is ZACHARY TAYLOR—one of your own fellow-citizens—a Louisianian—a man in whom Louisiana may rightfully claim [illegible]. We would ask you, LET LOUISIANIANS ANSWER AT THE BALLOT-BOX.

[illegible] labors have been our efforts, if we have [illegible] succeeding in owing to the people that [illegible] Cass is undeserving of the high station to which he aspires. We have shown him to be a weather-cock in politics, trimming and trimming [illegible] the exigencies of the time. We have shown him to be destitute of fixed principles, the mere [illegible] of circumstance, the creature of a shifting and unsteady policy, having no opinions more than [illegible] to public favor, and to serve [illegible] and supply by party [illegible]. We have shown him to be an enemy, [illegible] to become covert, to Southern institutions. We have shown him to be wholly silent upon the momentous issues which divide the people—an abolitionist at heart and false to the South. Throughout a long life of public services, not one solitary gleam of patriotism [illegible] has selfish course. He has been the favorite of fortune. He has amassed millions. Not one [illegible] has ever been expended to relieve suffering mortal; to encourage honest industry. Is such a man entitled to your suffrage? LET LOUISIANA ANSWER AT THE BALLOT BOX!

Come forward, then, friends of the glorious old Warrior, who has added imperishable lustre to the American name! Give one day to OLD ZACH—one day to your country. He has given you FORTY YEARS of constant toil and unremitting devotion. Give him in return ONE DAY! OLD ZACH fought for you, will you not vote for him? To the polls, then, fellow-citizens. Do your duty, and be assured that when the sun sets to-night his parting beams will [illegible] the glad countenances of millions of freemen, hovering over broad land, shouting the pæan of triumph and sending forth cheer upon cheer for a conflict greater than that of Buena Vista, and ringing together the names of those great masters, TAYLOR and FILLMORE. [illegible]

To Naturalized Citizens.

REMEMBER, Naturalized Citizens, that unless you have been TWO YEARS citizens of the United States you cannot vote. We know that most of you are honest and well-disposed, and that you would not offer to vote unless you believe that you are constitutionally qualified. We beg of you, therefore, to bear in mind that if you [illegible] vote unless TWO YEARS have elapsed since you took out your papers, but that the attempt to vote is punishable by the severest penalties. The qualifications of a voter are as follows:

TWO YEARS A CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES!
TWO YEARS' RESIDENCE IN THE STATE!
ONE YEAR IN THE PARISH!!!
THREE MONTHS IN THE WARD!!!!

☞ The snow was sufficiently deep for good sleighing in Halifax on the 23d ult.

Atrocious Fraud!

THE PLAQUEMINE GAME AGAIN!

We have at length the certainty that an atrocious system of FRAUD and RASCALITY is again to be attempted at Plaquemine. The steamer Die Vernon, chartered by the Locofocos, left this City on Sunday night, ostensibly for the purpose of proceeding to Plaquemine, to take the voters to the several precincts. After she had proceeded a short distance down the coast, she took in a very large number of men. A gentleman who lives on the river's edge, and whose house was passed by the boat early yesterday morning, came to town in haste, and informed the Taylor Executive Committee that at the approach of the Die Vernon he beheld her decks perfectly thronged. There could not have been less than ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY persons on board.

In addition to this, we learn from an equally authentic source, that another steamer has been employed by the Locofocos, to coast along the Lake shores and pick up men at various points, until a full cargo is obtained, when she will proceed to Plaquemine. It is believed that the effort to poll these spurious votes will be made at the Balize, or South West Pass. We have a hope—though a faint one—that the Pilots, who are fair and honest men generally, will not suffer this INFAMOUS SWINDLING to be carried out. At all events, the knowledge of the facts should nerve the Taylor men of New Orleans to re-doubled exertions. Let the City save the State! WORK, FELLOW-WHIGS AND TAYLOR DEMOCRATS, THAT OLD ZACH MAY NOT BE CHEATED OUT OF THE VOTE OF LOUISIANA.

The originators and abettors in this scheme of fraud and scoundrelism, will hear more of it hereafter. The people of Louisiana will not consent to have their dearest rights and privileges trampled upon and set at naught by unprincipled and gambling politicians.

Last Cards.

Once more we call the attention of the friends of TAYLOR and FILLMORE to the despicable inventions circulated by Locofocoism, and currently known as "Last Cards." We may feel assured that they will abound every way to-day. North, South, East and West will every variety of electioneering device be employed to gain support for Cass and Butler. Taylor men, pay no attention whatever to these contemptible tricks. Press forward gallantly to the work before you, and be not deterred by the flimsy falsehoods put forth on the very eve of the contest.

Don't Crowd the Polls.

We trust that arrangements will be entered into by both parties to-day, to enable the voters to deposit their tickets in the ballot-box without difficulty or unnecessary delay. The old and infirm have a claim to the exercise of the right of suffrage, equally with the young and vigorous. We trust, therefore, that there will be no crowding at the polls, but that the voters will form a line and enter two by two at one side, and after voting go out at the other. In the manner the election can be conducted expeditiously and peaceably.

Inspectors, do your duty.

The Inspectors of the election have a double duty to perform—first, they must RECEIVE every legal vote—next, they must REJECT every illegal vote. In the performance of this important duty, we hope the Inspectors will remain cool and determined. Let no insane clamor awe you—let not threats of violence appall you. We be to him who seeks to browbeat and menace those whom the law constitutes partisan judges at the polls. We are anxious that every qualified voter should freely exercise his right. We are equally anxious that no fraudulent voting should be permitted. Let the Inspectors do their duty, and the ballot-box will be unpolluted.

EXAMINE WELL YOUR TICKETS

Read EVERY NAME upon the electoral ticket, before you put it in the ballot-box. Tickets have been printed with "TAYLOR and FILLMORE" at the top, and the names of the Cass Electors beneath. Be on your guard, therefore, and examine well your tickets and see that the SIX TAYLOR ELECTORS are upon them. Remember too, that a man's vote is lost if he does not vote for the Electors. You cannot vote for President direct, and all such votes are lost.

PRESENTATION OF A BANNER.—A splendid banner was presented yesterday evening at half-past four o'clock, by the ladies of New Orleans to the Boatmuster' Club of the First Municipality. It is one of the most magnificent silk ensigns that ever floated at the head of processions. On one side is the portrait of the glorious old Zach, and on the other a commemorative inscription of the fair donors. It was received by the bold men who form the Club with a high sense of the favor conferred upon them by the fairest moiety of our population.

DEATH OF A WOMAN FROM BLOWS INFLICTED BY HER HUSBAND.—The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 23d ult., says: The Coroner was called on Saturday night, to hold an inquest over the body of Mrs. Martha McGwire, at her house on Congress street. The verdict of the jury was that she came to her death by blows inflicted by her husband, Martin McGwire. He was arrested on Sunday night and lodged in the watch house. The Mayor committed him to jail yesterday morning, to wait an examination at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. McGwire died about ten o'clock, on Saturday night. The persons about the house were so much intoxicated that they permitted her body to lay in the bed where she died without the least care, until the Township Trustees went down with a coffin after dark Sunday night and had the body properly attended to.

INDIANA.—A distinguished gentleman, very intimately acquainted with Indiana and her politics, informs us that he has no doubt at all of her going for Gen. Taylor. He says, that, within the sphere of his own intercourse with her citizens, there are many, very many Democrats, who, tired of the restraints of partizan politics, are determined to vote for Gen. Taylor, and that the old General's vote in Indiana on the 7th of November, will astonish the nation. He states that these Democrats, who intend going for the old hero, make no noise at all upon the subject, but that their resolutions are unalterably taken.

The editor of the Evansville Journal seems to be of the same opinion. He copies our late estimate of the result of the Presidential election, prefacing it thus:

We copy the following calculation from the Louisville Journal of Saturday. It will be seen that Mr. Prentice puts down Indiana to Cass. In this we have to differ with him. We believe that Indiana is as certain for Taylor as Kentucky—further, we believe the first district (the most doubtful district in the State) will give Gen. Taylor a majority. The Whigs and no-dirt Democrats who will vote for Taylor are not noisy it is true, but they are alive to the importance of the contest, and will to a man be found at the ballot-box on the day of election.

All this is full of encouragement. Let but the friends of Gen. Taylor in Indiana keep up their courage and put forth every ounce of their strength on the day of the election, and the result may crown them and their State and their country with glory.

Dreadful Occurrence in Albany.

[By Telegraph to the New York Tribune.]

ALBANY, Friday, Oct. 27.

The building for the new gas works, now erecting in Colonie street fell to-day. Twelve or fifteen men were killed or wounded—Mr Childs of New Jersey, the superintendent of the building, is said to be among the killed.

SECOND ACCOUNT.

ALBANY, Friday, Oct 27.

The accident which occurred this afternoon at the Gas Works in this city was not so serious as was at first apprehended and reported. On careful inquiry it was found that only one man was killed, by the name of Giles Frederick of Newark, New Jersey. Seven others were injured very severely, though doubtful whether fatally. The cause of the accident arose from the falling down of a large iron plating, forming the covering of a large gasometer. In its descent it fell upon 30 or 40 men, of whom only those referred to above suffered by the falling mass.

Escap from Jail in Tenne.

We learn that, on Tuesday last, about half a dozen runaway negroes confined in the Tenne parish jail in St. Joseph, succeeded by their united exertions, in working their way into the open air. The anxious masters of these negroes have known, for some time doubtless, that they were "out" but, in this case, the chief anxiety would arise from a desire to know where they were "in." If the owners of these negroes have had any good opportunity to know that they might have found them, before they escaped from the Tenne jail, we have overlooked the advertisements of their commitment in the newspapers. Were they advertised? If not, why not?—Con. Int.

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.

[From the Petersburg Intelligencer.]

TRANSMITTED TO THE N. O. BEE.

[By Mail from Mobile]

ARRIVAL OF THE HIBERNIA.

The following despatch containing much important intelligence, was received yesterday.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.

The Hibernia has arrived at Boston. The Crops in Great Britain have been gathered. The Scottish potato crop is larger—The Irish immensely short—Breadstuffs are drooping from very large importations. The Cholera is increasing in England and malignant at Edinburgh. In New Haven only 30 additional cases have occurred. In London the alarm is abating.

At Liverpool Cotton has declined ¾d. on all descriptions. Orleans Fair to Good Fair quoted at 4¾d.@4 7-16d.; Mobile 3⅞ to 4⅛; Boweed Georgia the same. Sales of the week 36,000 bales—6000 American to exporters. Market closed quiet with declining tendency. In Glasgow and Manchester trade is dull, and sales limited. Breadstuffs are firm at Liverpool and London from non-arrivals; but from the immense supplies on the way, no prospect of advance exists. Wheat 7s. 6d. to 8s. 9d.; Flour dull at 31@32s; Corn has improved—White 35 to 36s.; Yellow 35s@37s.; Meal 15s. 6d. to 16s. Provisions quiet. Prime Beef 85s. to 90s. per tierce; Mess 99 to 63s.; Ordinary Pork 35s. to 50s.

O'Brien has not been executed.

Lord Clarendon replied to the London memorialists, that full weight will be given to the Jury's recommendation. O'Brien's counsel are attempting to bring a writ of error. O'Donohue has been convicted, but was recommended to mercy. Gagahan's trial is progressing.

SECOND DESPATCH.

There is a tremendous crisis at Vienna. Jellachick first advanced towards the City and then retired, the Emperor's general maintaining possession in the suburbs. Prince Windagrahtz is advancing from Prague to command the Imperial army, amounting to 100,000 men. The Diet can muster the same. Bombardment will be attempted, but supplies will be cut off, to starve the City into submission. The Emperor is in Moravia collecting forces.

In Ireland, the Catholic clergy are moving to procure Government aid to tranquilise the country. They implore an advance of funds for feeding those who are starving.

In France, Cavaignac is in power, and is still maintaining a conciliatory course towards the non-Socialist party. Decaux, Prefect of Paris, has resigned, disapproving the course of Cavaignac, whose steady downfall is predicted. Ledru Rollin's Mosquero continue exciting alarm and causing a depression of the funds.

The Diet has sent its ultimatum to the invading army, refusing to disarm the National Guard unless the army retire. The Emperor of Russia is threatening in support of Ferdinand from Poland. The Hungarian battalions in the city demand to return to their country. Radetsky's position is perilous.

Spain is unsettled, but general quiet. The Italians are about to take the field under Gen. Durando. Radetsky is paralized.

London Consols are quoted 84¾ to 84⅝—heavy.

THIRD DESPATCH.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3d.

During the Democratic procession at Philadelphia last night, a terrible row ensued. A person named Albert Colman, was killed by Clubs, and Samuel Marazee and G. W. Roberts, dangerously wounded by pistol shots. The outrage was caused by persons stepping from the procession buzzing for hitters.

All the Northern markets are unchanged.

FOURTH DESPATCH.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.

A serious collision took place last night, on the Boston and Lynn Rail Road, by which six persons were killed and many wounded.

The Vermont Legislature have elected as U. S. Senator, Mr. Upham, a Whig.

FIFTH DESPATCH.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3d.

The New York Flour and Grain markets were firm on the morning of the Hibernia's arrival, but sales cotton sold at unchanged prices. After the announcement of her arrival, all business was clinched.

The Illuminated Procession.

We despair, at this late hour of the night, of giving any thing like an adequate description of the Grand Illuminated Procession of last evening. Suffice it, that it beggared every pageant hitherto witnessed in our city. In numbers, brilliancy and enthusiasm it far eclipsed any demonstration yet made. The various Ward Clubs, the auxiliary Clubs, the Rangers, Fillmore and Gimblett and the dense mass of citizens who united with them, contributed to form the most gorgeous and magnificent processions of the campaign. The ladies thronged every balcony, and cheered the cortege as it passed, and the shouts for Taylor and Fillmore almost silenced the roar of the ordnance which accompanied the procession.

Taylor men of Orleans, you have shown the Locos that you can beat them at processions—now is the time to prove to them your strength at the ballot-box

TO THE POLLS

FIRE IN COLUMBIA, S. C.—The Charleston Courier of the 1st, says:

Yesterday afternoon, at half past six o'clock, as we learn from a Telegraphic despatch, a fire broke out in Columbia, in a Carpet shop, on the corner of Camden and Bull streets.

The building becoming enveloped in flames, the fire extended to an adjoining Blacksmith shop, and both buildings were entirely consumed. The property belonged to a free colored man, and his loss is estimated at about nine hundred dollars. How the fire originated is not known.

Death of Major Robert Dunbar.

Adams county, Miss., lost a valuable citizen, yesterday, when Major Robert Dunbar expired at his residence there. He was a courteous and estimable gentleman, sincere and honorable in all his relations, admired by the community at large and adored by the social circle which he graced. The county would fitly mourn the loss of such a citizen.

Major Robert Dunbar, in the fire and vigor of his youth, did gallant service to his country during the Florida war, and had just completed arrangements to repose quietly on his private independence. His extensive and valuable plantation in Madison parish in this State, he had made incredible efforts, of late years, to beautify but, ere the work was done, his career was run. Peace to the manes of him who wished peace to all.—Con. Int.

The Weather and the Cotton Crop.

Yesterday, was a boisterous and severe day. The wind whirled in all directions during the early part of the day and the rain, cold and piercing, came on in the afternoon and continued without intermission during the night.

This storm will not do much damage in our cotton fields as nearly all the cotton in this neighborhood is already picked.—Ib.

That shrewd calculator, GREELEY, of the Tribune, puts forth the following estimates of the votes of several important States:

Pennsylvania and Ohio.

We are favored with sundry letters, asking our private opinion as to the vote of PENNSYLVANIA for President. We have no such opinion. We have but one opinion on the subject, founded on recent advices from various parts of the State, and it is that Pennsylvania will cast her vote for Taylor and Fillmore by a decided majority. There is scarcely a section from which the reply is not uniform—We shall do better for Taylor than we did for Johnston! A very few Whig counties may be unfavorably affected by the Van Buren movement—say Allegheny, Mercer and possibly Chester—but nearly all will increase their majorities, while the majorities in many of the adverse counties will surely fall off, and not more than half of them can be increased without fraud. We think there are ten counties in which the gain for Taylor on Johnston's vote will exceed 5,000. One gentleman assures us that there will be 51 Longstreth votes for Taylor in his Election District; another, of unlimited acquaintance, knows of six changes of that sort within his narrow circle. We believe the case is much like this generally, though there are a few localities in which Free Soil votes were given to Johnston which will go for Van Buren. After making all reasonable allowances, we are satisfied that resolute and systematic work will give the State to Taylor, and that the work will be done.

—As to Ohio, our own impressions have been decidedly adverse to the probability of its voting for Taylor, unless in case of such a general hurrah in his favor that it will do him no good, not being wanted. We still think that if Gen. T. carries Ohio, he will have 200 of the 290 Electoral Votes. Our recent advices are from sources not known to us as reliable, but they concur in giving the State to Taylor. There is no room to doubt that Taylor will outrun Ford in several counties; still the vote of the State is in the hands of the Free-Soilers of the Reserve, and must not be confidently counted on. There is no doubt, however, that every day increases the chance of its going for Taylor. Gennesta will pretty surely vote for Taylor. The majority against us at the State election is much less than we supposed a week ago.

INDIANA would have voted for Taylor, if no sensible exertions had been made. It may do so yet. But with Pennsylvania or Ohio right, her vote will not be needed.

NEW JERSEY cannot be doubtful, unless the Whigs of the Fifth District allow themselves to be set at loggerheads respecting a member of Congress, and we trust the danger of that is over. Altogether the prospect is most cheering.

MRS. DUBALEN—Respectfully informs the Ladies of New Orleans that she has just received from Paris an assortment of Fancy Goods, which she will open on Thursday, 9th inst., at 128 Royal street.
