The New-Orleans Bee.

No. 900. VOL. IX.—NEW SERIES. VOL. XXII.—WHOLE No. 5895.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF GENERAL COUNCIL AND FIRST MUNICIPALITY.....NEW-ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1849.

MAGNE & WEISSE, Proprietors. No. 61 CHARTRES STREET.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

By mail, one year in advance).....$12 00
Daily Bee, Semi-weekly, one year.....
.....$10
[illegible] most [illegible] one week' [illegible] he can be allowed to discontinue.

Advertisements at the dollar for every TEN lines for [illegible] the first insertion and HALF A DOLLAR for every subsequent one. No Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each instance.

Advertisements not specified as to time will be Published one month, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each language and for each insertion.

☞ The privilege of Annual Advertisements is confined to advertisements strictly within the line of their business, and in extent to one square over-head.

Notice.

No person is authorized to receipt for the proprietors of the Bee, but Mr. E. Duverger, our book-keeper, and Messrs E. Morton Quirk and Delaney Nolan, our collectors. MAGNE & WEISSE.

New-Orleans, 30 April, 1849.

FOR GOVERNOR,
ALEXANDER DECLOUET.
FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,
DUNCAN F. KENNER,
For Auditor of Public Accounts,
LOUIS BORDELON,
For Congress,
FIRST DISTRICT,
O. P. JACKSON.
SECOND DISTRICT,
CHARLES M. CONRAD.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee

Saturday morning, June 2, 1849.

The Madness of Fanaticism.

We have often endeavored to point out the [illegible] existing between the mere Abolitionists of the North and the mere Disunionists of the South, and to demonstrate that in the spirit which actuated each of these factions there existed a common ground, even when harboring the most [illegible] towards each other. An able correspondent of the Baltimore American—views the subject in the same light, and illustrates it by [illegible] drawn from the recorded language and sentiments of their leaders.

Extracts from the opinions advanced by one of Mr. Calhoun's favorite organs—the Charleston Mercury—have been given in the Bee. The Richmond Telegraph furnishes the annexed paragraph, calmly contemplates the [illegible] of the Union as a consummation devoutly to be wished, and advantageous every respect to the South.

"Continuance in the Union as it is will [illegible] in poverty and penury, and corruption and misery. We cannot remain as miserably connected with the [illegible] as we are. Separation is inevitable, sooner or later. Why not now? Why not at once? Why not at a time when we have the [illegible] advantage of it? Why not the very time when [illegible] are [illegible] to the South, pushing by the experience of the past, with a common interest bringing together with hooks of steel, with free trade with the world, and the peculiar manufactures which now exist in a Southern Confederacy, rich, united, and powerful beyond any thing in the history of mankind, and [illegible] of it? Why not the very time when [illegible] are [illegible] to the Union, and [illegible] to [illegible] with us? Why not the very time when [illegible] are [illegible] to the Union, and [illegible] to [illegible] with us? Why not the very time when [illegible] are [illegible] to the Union, and [illegible] to [illegible] with us?

In connection with such views as these, the [illegible] South Carolina are holding meetings [illegible] to [illegible] organize a State convention in case the Wilmot Proviso [illegible] by Congress. Why they [illegible] with the Oregon Territorial Bill, [illegible] the Proviso was signed by Mr. Polk we are not told. Nor are we told what [illegible] would happen that the Proviso [illegible] California and New Mexico were [illegible] with the intervention of Congress. In such an event, in some sections [illegible] would [illegible] were [illegible] and there [illegible] a dangerous [illegible] accumulated and [illegible] But let us hope for better things.

To one other rule, "Hold by an idiot," the resolutions adhere. The Abolitionists have [illegible] at their Annual Convention in New York, where, among other resolutions of a [illegible] nature, the following were adopted:

Resolved, That that which is giving strength, extension and perpetuity to American slavery—to wit, the Union—is receiving increased power to [illegible] the [illegible] slaveholding States [illegible] a [illegible] base and for self-preservation must necessarily weaken, mine and overthrow slavery from the American soil.

Resolved, That the duties of every christian [illegible] are very plainly stated to be, "No union [illegible] with [illegible] either in [illegible] or politics."

Resolved, That the union of every christian [illegible] with [illegible] is not a separation of [illegible] from [illegible] but a [illegible] from [illegible] and [illegible] from [illegible] and [illegible] from [illegible] and