Immense Whig Meeting.

Last evening a meeting assembled at the Lafayette Race Course, which, in number and enthusiasm equalled any of those gigantic public demonstrations that were so frequent during the late canvass. At about eight o'clock, the Rough and Ready Rangers preceded by a band of music, marched in great strength, and were followed by the carriages of tremendous dimensions. The entire space under the rooms shed of the Race Course, along the Levee adjoining, was completely filled by a throng of ardent Taylor men.

The meeting was called to order by G. de Ferriere, and the following gentlemen were appointed officers.

President—LOUIS LEBEAU.
Vice Presidents—1st Municipality—J. F. Pepin.
J. L. Fabre.
G. Clarke.
John R. Shaw.
R. B. Kendall.
Col. McAlpin.
3d " T. Wintz.
J. C. Prendergast.
J. C. Thirlen.
Greina, Jules Morrion.
Lafayette, J. H. Fitch.
L. E. Nee.
C. M. Waterman.
J. R. Vienne.

The President having explained the object of the meeting,

Mr. Sparrow arose to explain the purpose of its being called. He had been requested to call it together by a number of his friends, who were desirous that there should be a full expression of the people of this city in favor of the election of Taylor and Fillmore. He was fully convinced that the people of Louisiana were in favor of the election of Taylor and Fillmore, and he was desirous that they should have an opportunity of expressing their opinions. He was sure
