Clerks of Court and Constables will follow suit. It would be in vain for us to protest against these innovations. They are beyond our con-trol, and their projectors would certainly give little heed to counsel which, might be deemed new scheme of the Democracy, is to enquire making formal political nominations for the offices above menuoued

The position in which the Whig party will be placed by this movement, is altogether defensive. They had no idea of nominating party candidates for sheriff and coroner; they imagined that the usual plan would be followed this year as a matter of course. With respect to the highly intelligent and unexceptionable gentle-man who has been exceptionable. the generous confidence of the Wnige, by whose woten he has been twice chosen-that in no on both sides, to give a party complexion to the momination of these gentitemen; but the attempt has invariably proved abortive. Sheriff Levis regularly receives hundreds of Whig vores and Coroner Syrdox, has always obtained a liberal support from his political opponents. In these two instances, the dictates of reason and insert works and coroners in the entire that the political opponents from his political opponents. In these two instances, the dictates of reason and suggestions of sound policy have heretofore predominated over party zeal, and the results have been tortunate for the interests of the entire, in 1848, for Taylor, Case, while, the considerations. We preceive that already initiatory steps have been takengtowards the selection of party candidates for sheriff and Coroner.
