The New-Orleans Bee.

NO. 1130. VOL. X.—[WHOLE NUMBER] VOL. XXXII. [NEW SERIES.] No. 6185.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE AND OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL.—NEW-ORLEANS, MNODAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1850.

MAGNE & WEISSE, Proprietors. NO. 83 CHARTRES STREET.

TERMS OF THE BEE.

DAILY PAPER, [illegible] $12 00
COUNTRY PAPER, [illegible] 5 00
In advance. [illegible] the week's no
Advertisements not to be published in the
A reduction [illegible] TEN PER CENT
Advertisements [illegible] Advertising
Magnificent [illegible] to Advertising
A [illegible] Advertising
Agents [illegible] every
Subscription [illegible] every other

The New-Orleans Daily Bee.

Monday Morning, March 11, 1850.

For Legislature matter See THIRD PAGE.

☞ The Northern Mail failed yesterday to reach Canal Connection.

THE CONVENTION BILL.

The close of the bill to take the sense of the people upon the expediency of calling a Convention to alter and amend the Constitution, has been anticipated by us, from the moment that the party, having passed the House, was submitted to the action of the Senate. Republican principles would have induced us to form quite another opinion. The Senate is the more republican body, in favor of popular rights. The Democracy professed to love the people, to obey the will of the people, to devote all an honest love to the people and to refer all unsettled questions to be by the people. Let us, therefore, have it so that we may have the expression that the Senate would thus make, by a majority of the people of the State, in favor of the Convention. Let the people vote for or against the Convention. The Senate is Democratic enough