The New-Orleans Bee.

NO. 1156, VOL. X.—NEW SERIES. } OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE AND OF THE GENERAL COUNCIL. NEW-ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 19, 1850. { MAGNE & WAINE, Proprietors. No. 82 CHARTRES STREET.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTICES.

[illegible]

Tuesday Morning, March 19, 1850.

[illegible]

MR WEBSTER.

[illegible]

PASSAGE, LAWRASON & Co.—The extensive establishment of these gentlemen has been transferred from Gravier street to No. 106 Magazine street, just above Poydras. We make the fact public, as there is a very large number of persons going to California and other places, who have necessary business to transact with Messrs. PASSAGE, LAWRASON & Co.

THE CARNIVAL OF FLOWERS.—We are indebted to Mr. Mayo for a beautiful Waltz bearing this title, and dedicated to Miss De Blanc by the author, Mr. LABMANN.

THE RACES.

The Spring Meeting of the Metairie Races commences to-day. Mr. TeBrieux, the proprietor, has opened the Esplanade Course for the convenience of the public, as well as the owners of race horses, and in accordance the races will [illegible] over that excellent track, which is now in fine order. The weather, moreover, is delightful, and the attendance promises to be immense. The track is [illegible] by the numerous [illegible] of the Crescent City, and [illegible] Mississippi, Texas and Tennessee are [illegible] to be present. Mr. Wade [illegible] Mr. Walker, [illegible] Mr. Minor, [illegible] Mr. Bullock, [illegible] Mr. Bowie, [illegible] Mr. Bullock, [illegible] Mr. Bowie, [illegible] Mr. Bullock, [illegible] Mr. Bowie