La Chambre se forme d'elle-même en comité général, M. Bienvenu, président, pour prendre en considération la résolution additionnelle de M. Larue, au sujet de la milice.

M. Larue, au nom du comité de finances, fait un rapport favorable sur la résolution additionnelle de M. Larue, relative à la milice.

Cette résolution est adoptée.

M. Larue propose la résolution additionnelle suivante :

Que le Gouverneur soit autorisé à faire payer à chaque officier, sous-officier, musicien et soldat de la milice, qui a été appelé à marcher contre les Indiens, la même solde et les mêmes rations que celles allouées aux officiers, sous-officiers, musiciens et soldats de la milice des Etats-Unis, pendant le temps qu'ils ont été en service actif
