CALIFORNIA.

By the arrival yesterday of the steamship Ohio, Lieutenant J. F. Schenck, U. S. Navy, commanding, we have received our files of California papers to the 1st instant, being one month later than previous advices. The Ohio brings $50 non-passengers, of which 94 are from Chagres, 13 from New York and 23 from Havana. She likewise brings the Pacific mail of upwards of a million of dollars in gold.

The Ohio left Honolulu on the 6th. The Georgia, three and a half days from Chagres, left there on the 31st for New York, and the Falcon, for Chagres on the 2d. The Falcon took 117 passengers from the Ohio in addition to those taken from the Georgia.

The steamer Oregon left San Francisco on the 1st of March, arrived at Panama on the 20th, with 534 passengers, and, anyway as could be ascertained, 700 millions and hundred thousand dollars' worth of gold—principal of which came by the Ohio, the balance was taken by the Georgia and Cherokee—bound to New York.

The steamship Tennessee, Captain Cole, arrived at Panama on the 12th of March, 94 days from New York. She encountered a severe gale off Cape Horn, by which her rigging was deranged, which caused a detention of [illegible] days at Rio Janeiro, and ten days at Valparaiso.

The steamer South Sands was [illegible] on the bottom of the [illegible] when the Tennessee left.

The Isthmus and South Sands were hourly expected at Panama.

The Tennessee was to have left for San Francisco on the 23d inst.

The U. S. war brig Cyane left Valparaiso for Callao on the 21st February, in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Washington. She was to touch at Payta, Panama, Acapulco and Monterey, and thence to San Francisco.

MESSRS. AND MADAME —A few days since, a letter of introduction, accompanied by a note of [illegible] was left at this office by a gentleman who stated that he was a resident of Monterey, California, and that he had been requested by the writer of the letter to call upon us. We have not seen the gentleman since, and the letter has been mislaid. We shall be glad to hear from him again, and to receive the letter.

The emigration of foreigners into California is becoming immense, and the [illegible] of gold [illegible] the influx at the port of San Francisco is on the [illegible]. The Alta California says that from the [illegible] of the South [illegible] and from Central and from the Hawaiian Islands, [illegible] have arrived [illegible] and are [illegible] in the mines. [illegible] are [illegible] rush to the gold regions, [illegible] which during the present month [illegible] the mines. [illegible] are [illegible] the necessary [illegible] the [illegible] have [illegible] the [illegible] of the mines [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] the [illegible] of the
