April 1st, 1849. 10t S. C. 5 days after street.

Executive Office,

Baton Rouge, March 25th, 1850.

Whereas J. B. Doomi, Collector of State taxes for Fifth Representative District of the city of New Orleans, has applied to me for the cancelling of the following bonds, to wit:

1. A bond executed by him on the 11th day of February, 1848, as Collector of State taxes for the Fifth Representative District of Orleans, together with Louis Bonsmeer as surety for the sum of $10,000.

2. A bond subscribed by him on the 11th day of February, 1848, as Collector of State taxes for the Fifth Representative District of Orleans, together with Jean Bonant as surety for the sum of $10,000.

3. A bond subscribed by him on the 11th day of February, 1848, as Collector of State taxes for the Fifth Representative District of Orleans, together with Jean Baptiste Jeannin as surety for the sum of $7,500 as surety.

4. A bond subscribed by him on the 11th day of February, 1848, as Collector of State taxes for the Fifth Representative District of Orleans, together with George R. Rogers as surety for the sum of $5,000.

Notice is therefore given to all persons interested therein to show cause in writing at the office of the Secretary of State within ninety days after the last publication hereof, why said bonds should not be cancelled and annulled.

Given under my hand and Seal of the [SEAL.] State on this 25th day March, 1850, and of the Independence of the United States the seventy fourth.

By the Governor, JOSEPH WALKER.
CHARLES GAYARRE, Secretary of State. 30t

AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

Baton Rouge, March 28, 1850.

The 35th section of an act entitled "An act to establish and regulate the Treasury Department," provides,

"That it shall be the duty of the Auditor, when collector of the revenues, or holders of the public money, shall fail to pay the amount due by them, into the Treasury within the time prescribed by law, to publish the names of the defaulters within thirty days after such default, in four newspapers printed at the most convenient places in the State, ten days, the amounts respectively due by each; and the amount so due, together with the penalties and forfeitures herein prescribed, shall be a lien upon the real and personal estate of such defaulter and his securities, from the time of such defalcation."

In compliance with the requirements of the law above quoted, the names of the following collectors of State taxes are now published with the amounts due by each respectively, viz:

Benjamin Packer, parish of Bienville, amount due on the roll of 1849, $1083 90

Samuel Stewart, parish of Madison, amount due on the roll of 1848, $9416 39

A. H. Bradley, parish of Frank in, amount due on the roll of 1848, $1592 87
