Said Boat is now enrolled in the office of the Collector of Customs at Louisville, Kentucky, in the words and figures following, to-wit:

"ENROLLMENT.

"Enrollment in conformity to an act of Congress of the United States of America, entitled 'An act for enrolling and licensing ships or vessels to be employed in the coasting and Fisheries, and for regulating the same.'

Jesse Hart, of West Baton Rouge, State of Louisiana, having taken and subscribed the oath required by the said act, and having sworn that he owns 48 shares, of $500 to the share, W H Avery, 80 shares; C Adams, Jr, 5 shares; J E Whitall, 1 share; J M Relf & Co, 4 shares; Theodore Johnston, 1 share; G W Butler, 1 share; Paul Hebert, 1 share; Vaughn & Hebert, 2 shares; Robert Sewall, 1 share; J K Randolph, 1 share; W C H Venttess, 2 shares; H McCall, 1 share; Henry McCall, 1 share; Duncan F Kenner, 1 share; J M Brown, 2 shares; Southern Atlain, 1 share; Converse & Kennett, 4 shares; R Munford, 1 share; Wilhelmus Bogert, 1 share; and John Andrews, 1 share, are citizens of the United States, sole owners of the ship or vessel, called the Brilliant, and that the said ship or vessel, is a steam master, and as he hath sworn, is a citizen of the United States, and that the said ship or vessel, was built at New Albany, in the State of Indiana, in the year 1836, as per certificate of admeasurement of this date;

And said certificate of admeasurement having certified that the said ship or vessel has one deck and no mast, and that her length is 213 feet; her breadth is 29 feet; her depth is 6 feet 6 inches, and that she measures 395 58 95 tons; and further certifies that she is a Steamboat, has a cabin on deck, and no head; And the said Jesse Hart having agreed to the description and admeasurement above specified, and sufficient security having been given according to law, the said ship or vessel has been duly enrolled at the port of Louisville.

Given under my hand and seal at the port of Louisville, this twenty-seventh day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

To have and to hold the said steamboat Brilliant, hereby conveyed, together with her Engines, Boilers, Machinery and whatsoever may be appurtenant or belonging to her, unto the said Brilliant Steamboat Company, hereby formed, and its assigns forever.

The said Boat is made for and in consideration of the sum of FIFTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS, cash in hand paid, which the vendors herein severally acknowledge to have been received, each for his seperate interest in the said price, from the several purchasers, each in their respective proportions, as hereinbefore recited.

Thus done and passed in my office, at the said City of New Orleans, in the presence of Ernest Grant and Morgan Cowsley, two witnesses of lawful age and domiciliated in this city, who hereunto subscribe their names, together with the said parties and me, the said Notary, on this twenty-first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

Pierce, of Lake Pierce, are believed to be the perpetrators of said murder. Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue, this my Proclamation, calling upon all the good people of this State, to give their aid and assistance, in arresting and bringing to justice the perpetrators of said crime, and furthermore offering a reward of five Hundred Dollars, in the name and by the authority of the State of Louisiana for their arrest and conviction.

SIMEON MORSE is a large athletic man about 6 feet in height, dark complexion, high cheek bones, of this city, herein representing Joseph E Whitall, of the parish of Iberville, and W C H Venttess, of the parish of Ascension, who are the general law of this State, as well as an act of the Legislature to authorize limited or anonymous partnerships, and to repeal the same, approved March the 13th, 1837, permits the formation of associations or joint stock companies, wherein each co-partner shall be entitled to a share in the profits in proportion to his contribution towards the Capital, and in which he shall be liable for losse in like proportion to his interest owned by him.

That awaiting these laws of said authority for the motives of expected pecuniary profit and of promoting their own and public accommodation, they do hereby, in their respective capacities form another co-partnership and such others as may become their co-associates by purchase, gift or inheritance of the said stock herein created, an association and joint stock company for the business of carrying freight and passengers for hire in the steamboat called the Brilliant, between the city of New Orleans and Carrollton, landing on the Mississippi river, and the different landing between those two points, under the following specifications and conditions:

First. The style and title by which the Company hereby formed shall be known, contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, shall be that of the Brilliant Steamboat Company, and by legal domicile and location of said Company shall be in the city of New Orleans.

Second. The business of said company shall be that of carrying freight and passengers for hire in the steamboat Brilliant, between the points above named, but the Directors for the time being shall have a right to sell, transfer or dispose of the said boat on trips to other points on the Mississippi and its tributaries.

Third. The capital stock of said company is hereby fixed at the sum of Fifty four Thousand Dollars, all of which is paid in cash.

Fourth. The number of said company is hereby divided into one hundred and eight shares, of the value of Five Hundred Dollars each, of which shares the following persons are the owners of shares written opposite their respective names:

Tenth. On the happening of any of the events named in the 7th section of this act, in case of the loss of destruction of said Boat, or on the sale of said Boat, the said Company shall be dissolved, and its affairs closed up and settled by the Directors then in office who shall proceed to settle and wind up the business of said Company, and to pay and discharge all its debts and liabilities, and to apply the balance of the proceeds of said Boat, or the money received for that purpose in such manner as they may think fit the said Boat, her machinery, boats, whole appurtenances, furniture, tackle and apparel, her hull, machinery or boats never to be sold, but power to collect all accounts, debts, and claims, and to execute and give all necessary acquittances and receipts therefor, debts or claims may be on sale at the end of three months, to sell at public auction after due notice, and such other terms as may be agreed on, and six months after the happening of one of the events named in the 7th and the proceeds of sale, after paying the debts of said Company, to be divided among the stockholders in said Company, and a final dividend to be made at the end of the term of the liquidation of the affairs of said Company.

Eleventh. Dividends of the clear profits after paying all expenses of the Company, shall be declared each year, to wit: on the first Monday in January, by the stockholders then constituted for the election of Directors. The first dividend shall be made with the first Monday in January, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-Two.

The above herein contemplated may be transferable on their Books, and in accordance with the fourth section of the act of the Legislature herein recited.

The Directors herein provided for, shall make, at the end of every quarter, beginning on the third Monday of March next, a statement of the state of the operations of the Company for the preceding term, showing the amount of profits and losses for said term, a copy of which shall be sent by the Secretary of said Company, within a reasonable time after said period. Said Directors, when-ever required to do so, shall report the condition of their trust to the capital stock of said Company, shall call a meeting of the Stockholders, to take place at the period named in said notice.

And now, Messrs. Jas N Brown, the firm of Vaughan & Hebert, represented by Paul O Hebert, Paul Hebert, Jos Fisher & Co, represented by Jesse Hart, William H Asbery, Henry Mc Call, Richard McCall, represented by Henry Mc Call, Duncan F Kenner, represented by Wm Mc Call, Converse & Kennett, represented by A G Kennett, Robinson Munford, of the Parish of West Baton Rouge, represented by John A Cotten, who originally subscribed for said R Munford, Christopher Adams, Jun; John Andrews, represented by C Adams, Jr, by annexed power of attorney; Mrs Mary E Sewell, widow and executrix of Robert Sewall, deceased, represented by Paul O Hebert, Benjamin F Whitall, of the Parish of Iberville, in this state, represented by Wilhelmus Bogert, of the city of New Orleans, by the said power of attorney, in the State, herein represented by A Mittenberger & Co, of this city; W C H Venttess, of the Parish of West Baton Rouge, in this State, and Jesse Hart, of the said Parish of West Baton Rouge, declared that, whereas, they together, as joint stockholders to the respective amounts hereinafter set forth, own the steamboat "BRILLIANT," whereof Jesse Hart is now master—they do, each for himself and his respective right, title, interest, claim and demand, in and to said steamboat, called the Brilliant, unto the subscribers in the manner hereby vested, in the proportion of the interest held by each respectively, and unto the Brilliant Steamboat Company hereby formed, (accepting the said conveyance for the undersigned subscribers, in the proportion of interest held by each respectively), and to assigns forever, promising each for himself and in the proportion of interest owned by him, to warrant and defend said Boat against all claims and demands of interest.
