Notice of Election.

THE qualified voters of the Third Representative District of the Parish of Orleans, called to vote at the ensuing election (which is to be held on the second Monday in December next, being the 9th day of said month), are hereby notified that by virtue of a writ of election, to me directed by His Excellency, Joseph Walker, Governor of the State of Louisiana, an election will be held in said District on SATURDAY, the 25th instant, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Hon. Henry A. Bullard, a Representative in the Legislature of the said District.

The polls will be opened from 8 o'clock, A. M. to six o'clock P. M. at the precincts to be established and under the superintendence of the Commissioners which are to be appointed by the Governor and Council of the city of New Orleans, in conformity with the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, approved 24th January, 1846.

The proceedings to be conducted, and duplicate returns made to the Sheriff of the Parish of Orleans, according to law.

Sheriff's Office, Parish of Orleans, this 11th day of November, A. D. 1850.

JOHN L. LEWIS Sheriff.

$300 Reward

THE above Reward will be paid for the recovery of two thousand dollars each, of the State Bonds, or the whole of the forty of New Orleans, and other papers stolen from the house of the Rev. John McDonogh, at Bellegroville, on the right bank of the river, opposite the City of New Orleans, by a gang of burglars, who broke into said house during the night of the 26th of October, 1850, while said premises were in charge of a servant.

Said bonds are all dated on the 6th day of March, 1837, signed by Denis Prieur, Mayor, to the order of, and endorsed by Philip Grenon, Treasurer of the city of New Orleans, and other papers stolen from the house of the Rev. John McDonogh, at Bellegroville, on the right bank of the river, opposite the City of New Orleans, by a gang of burglars, who broke into said house during the night of the 26th of October, 1850, while said premises were in charge of a servant.
