In Saxony, the simility of the German Catholic Synod have been interrupted by Government. The Synod protested, and said it would bring the matter before the law.

And in Austria,—apropus of the great Exhibition.—a cabinet-maker of Vienna, named Leistler, has just left that city for London, taking with him 33 out of the 250 workmen whom he employs, as well as a number of articles, which he has manifectured for the exhibition. Among them is the furming of a bedroom and boudour inlaid with gold and silver, and which is intended as a present from the Emperor of Austria to Queen Victoria. The furniture of the bedroom has cost 120,000, and that of the boudour 200,000 thrins.

Prince Schwarzenberg will not proceed to Dressien. The Dresden Conferences are to all purposes abandoned.

Izaly-You have already heard that the King of Napises had intimated to several enment Napolitions, who wished to viait the great Exhibition, that they might find it difficult to return. This same King Bomba is a very burly, plethoric Monarch, and the upresanal consequences to himself may be apprehended from that King Ferdinand France had demanded from that King Ferdinand how the suppression of the Stith that King Ferdinand France had demanded the evacuation of Tescany by the Austrian troops. The Grand Duke was exerting himself, in consequence, to complete his political and military alliance with the King of Naples; in order that the King of Naples, in order that the King of Naples in order that the King of Naples in order that the King of Naples in the military which the King of Naple

Heported Abandon ment of the ship Twocarora—
The ship Rodmon, which arrived to-day, attact that she touched at Whyloopache on the Pacific, January 29th, and found on the island a boat and nine men. They stated that they had shadoned the ship Tascarora, of Cold-spring, in company with the rest of the crew, who were in two other boats. They state that they were then 90 mile south of the Omangoe Islands; but, from an avowal made by one of the parties who came in the Rodman, it is betieved that the Tuccarora was accutted, by some of the crew boring holes in her bows. The other eight men composing the crew were left on the Island of Protongs.

PENIDENCE, May 10, 6 p. M. Restoration to Citistenship of Governor Dorr—Procession in Annor of Gov. Allen, &c. &c.—Salutes have been fired at intervals during the day, in honor of the restoration to his civil rights and privilegres of Governor Thomas Wilson Dorr. His partieans are very much rejoiced at this tardy act of fusing, which has been for so many years delayed.

Governor Allen was eccorted to his residence this afternoon, spon his return to Newport, the General Assembly lawsing just rises, after a sension of four days and a half. The Governor, in a large barouche, drawn by four white horses, was accompanied by the other members of the State government. The procession was not very namerous, or of a character to prove very gratilying to the Governor, or his friends, or the party.
