NOTICE.—In view of the increasing of my business, I have sold my interest in the power of attorney to LEONARD DEVEREUX, my brother, an attorney, who is now employed to pay all debts, collect and receive all the debts due me, and to act in my place. G. F. WEISSE, New Orleans, May 16, 1851.

This document was sealed yesterday from my office.

JUDGE BRAVO'S SOUTHERN RIGHTS.

We mentioned in our nomination by the Southern Rights Committee of the Mobile Congressional District, Judge BRAVO, in opposition to CHARLES C. LINDEN, the Mobile representative of the Southern Rights Committee, has written to Mr. Johnson, his lawyer, to withdraw his name from the Committee proposed to him.

The Committee proposed to him the following interrogatories:

1. Do you approve of the acts of Congress, commonly known as the Compromise measures, which were introduced into the Senate by Mr. Clay?

2. Do you believe that the South has the right to secede?

3. In the event of a war, do you believe that the South has the right to defend itself?

4. Do you believe that a revolution in the West, and a separation of the South, are to be expected?

5. Do you believe that the South has the right to self-government?

6. Do you believe that the South has the right to self-government?
