NOTICE.—
IN order to facilitate the transaction of my business, I have sold my interest in the M. STEPHEN DIVERSEY, my Casher, under agreement fully compensated to pay all other charges and receive all bills or accounts, either in New Orleans, May 1st, 1851.The NORTHERN Mail came through yesterday, with the latest news.

MR. WEBSTER.

In the course of Mr. Webster's Buffalo speech—uttered by the way of incomparable power, symmetry and masterly art—he uttered certain opinions, which the anti-slavery men of the Northern states did not appreciate. These opinions were not new, but they were so well received, that Mr. Webster had to repeat them.

The result of his speech was to have the command of the Dragoons. Lieut. John Bedford had been appointed Quartermaster.

The military movement, if it should have no other effect, will serve to give activity and energy to the slaves, and thus restore their health, which has been immensely impaired by the life of incivility and confinement to which they have been doomed.

An extract, from the Gazette of New-York, dated the 26th April, contains a few items of news.

The progress of the Territory taken by direct mail, from the 1st of May to the 1st of June, population, 56,984—Indians—accused.

The ratio of representation for New Mexico, is fixed by the Council, for the House, 2,712

The limit of Appointments for New Mexico, made at the close of the last Congress, had been exceeded by mail, and we were looking for the bill.

A public meeting was held at the Hall of the City Council, to nominate candidates for the Legislature. The following names were made—For the Senate, John Felipe Ortiz, (Vicario), Jesus Lujan, Presbiter, and Francisco Lyle, (Curia). For the House, J. P. F. F. Failes, Thomas Orton, and Candela Orta. Speeches were made by Messrs. Reynolds, Smith, Ashurst, Rev. W. H. Read, R. A. Johnson and Torre.

Gov. Calhoun, on the 22d April, issued his proclamation for an election of members of the Legislature—Assembly—appointing the name of members of the Council and of the House, and directing that each member of the Assembly, be entitled to a seat in the Senate.

The election was held on the 1st of May, and the members elected are to meet at Santa Fe, on the 2d day of June next.

Mr. Neville Stewart, late editor of the Santa Fe Gazette, arrived at Independence on the 28th—returning home on account of feeble health.

REVIEW OF THE PRESIDENT.—We are happy to see that the real question is now, whether the administration of Mr. Webster is to be continued, or whether it is to be suspended, and a shorter time given to the people of the South, than may be had.
