Council of Municipality No. One

Sitting of Tuesday, 27th May, 1851

WHEREAS the Council of Municipality No. One in adopting the resolution of the 7th January, 1850, relative to the revenues to be paid by the farmer of the Market, by all persons vending vegetables or game, on the levee or in Perdigon, or other crafts, has omitted to fix the amount of and consequently to collect the said revenue, which rights acquired by said farmer, and for the better understanding of the aforesaid resolution it now becomes necessary to fix the amount of said revenues as well as the limits in which said farmer is to exercise the right to collect said revenues.

Be it further

Resolved, That the farmer of the Vegetable Market shall exercise the right granted to him in the aforesaid resolution of the 7th inst. only on that portion of the post comprised between the lower line of St Ann street and the upper line of Esplanade street.

INSTITUTIONS.

ORLEANS HIGH SCHOOL,

Corner Camp and Howard streets.

Martin Behrman, Principal & Proprietor

THE various branches of knowledge are taught by Mr. BEHRMAN and three Assistant Professors, selected with a view to good character and skill and experience in teaching.

The system of education embraces the Grammar and Literature of the Greek, Latin, English, French and Spanish Languages; History, Geography, Rhetoric, Versification, Logic, Political Economy, Moral Philosophy, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Natural Philosophy, & Chemistry.

No pains are spared in imparting a thorough knowledge of these branches, so that all students who resort to this Institution may be fitted to enter with advantage upon the duties of the more responsible avocations of life, or upon the study of the learned professions.

As the Modern Languages, (particularly the English and the French) and the higher Mathematics receive very special attention, the school offers singular advantages to boys designed for mercantile pursuits.

For particulars see the prospectus, which may be found at Mr. Stern's Book store, 14 Camp street; at Mr. Lelievre's, Royal street; or at the School, 57 and 59 Esplanade street. 18t-1y

ST. LOUIS' INSTITUTION.

DIRECTED BY MADAME BEROIS.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

(Years 1850-51.)

No. 145 St. Louis st., between Dauphin & Burgundy.

Madame Deron, formerly a teacher of the Academy of Arts, under "Institut de la Legion d'Honneur," (Maison St. Denis,) has founded her Seminary, as much as possible, on the model of that establishment, as well as on the plan of the first Northern Academies.

The situation of St. Louis' Institution is one of the most agreeable and healthy in the city. The whole locality, including dormitories, class and study rooms, and play grounds, being very spacious and airy; and the surplus funds created by it is in a healthy a position, that, not a single pupil has experienced the least serious illness.

The plan of instruction both in French and English embraces all the literary and scientific branches of a finished education.

The study of English is the object of particular attention. Madame Deron is scrupulously careful that the creole Young Ladies should devote more time to the study of the English language and literature than to any other branch. Mr. Orion, a professor well known in New Orleans, contin
