MURKIN AT BRISTOL

We learn from the Sea Store Journal, that a most shocking murder was committed at Bristol on Tuesday evening last, when a man named Harold Andro, had quarreled with an Italian named Bernardo, about three weeks before. On Tuesday evening they met, not far from the Magnolia Hotel, when the latter stabbed the former in his back and side with a sword cane, producing almost immediate death. The murder was at the time reported, and the case was very fully attended and alluded to in the present issue of the Bee.
