"The Topic" this morning is the probability that of their own fread, and without Yankee aid, the oppressed Cubans have at length cast off the tyrannical rule of Spain and the heavy yoke under which they have grouned so long. We received partial accounts of their ignurec-tion per steamer Cherokes, but the intelligence was disbelieved. Having it as I did, however, directly from an officer of the steamwhip, who was present at Principe at the time of the outbreak, I gave it credence, and its correctne is corroborated by still later news. Those of the city papers which threw cold waiter on the accounts, now freely admit that there is a probability that such an insoffection has obtained head as will take all the forces on the island to subdue. If, as is asserted, this emeste has been made without American cooperation, it will be the more settifactory. Every mation, as well as every test, ought to estand on its own bottom, and not meddle with the purification of other governments.

There are four opinions in this city on the subject of Cuban revolution. One set of minds, conservative to an excess, presend that the Cubana have no cause for compaint; that they require a strong government, and were never so well off as when under the share, relentions, iron rule of Tacon, the Capstan General who was so great a favorite with the Court of Madrid. Among these may be included some Soanish residents of New York, (like one at my chlow at table—an old ex-offic, of Cuba,) who are loyal to the back bone.

Another class, are free to admit that Cuba is greatly oppressed, and that it is not only tyrannicab haster for the Spanish Government to think of making her bleed patiently forever, but they dread her smpegation to this court, as takely to enlarge, so the area of recedom, the area of slavery. If, on the other hand, she should obtain her independence, and not come under the American Government, the fear that she would become a bone of contention between the nations, or possibly success for a Southera confederacy, including South Carolina, &c. Then again there are thousand at the fear that she would become a hone of contention between the nations, or possibly success for a Southera confederacy, including South Carolina, &c. Then again there are thousand in this community who freely avow their desire to see Cuba annexed to the United States; and these revolution fats.

The fourth sat of people, to which I allude, are a considerable body of Unban, whose political offences have excited them from their native land. Upon receiving yesterday a confirmation, the reli

Our streets were enlivened to day with a fine military disaley, and the stirring atrains of martial music—being the occasion of the first parade of only our new companies, the Newark Rifemen, Captain Liebe, accompanied by the section Rifemen, Captain Liebe, accompanied by the section, as guests, the Williamsburgh Riffe Corpe, on a visit to this city to-day. I regret to inform you that while the solders were on parade a settlose riot took place. From some cause or other a fight took place in a German beer house, between two men. The report spread that sees of the partice was captain of a riffe company, and a number of soldiers hastened to his rescue. A riot of rather a serious character fellowed, in which several persons were badly wounded. One man received a severe cut in the head from a sword in the hands of one of the soldiers. Finally the police same on the ground, and, after a hard struggle, suncoeded in arresting the ringleaders and restoring peace. It is reported that one man has since died from his wounds.
