THE ELECTION—Its Results.—We regret that we are not able to speak definitely in relation to the results of our recent election. While Powell has beaten Dixon, Thesespoon has beaten Wickille. The Whige will have majorities in both branches of the Legislature.

In yestendy's paper, we stated some of the prominent causes which operated to the disadvantage of Mr. Dixon. The ordersal of thousands of Whige to vote for him has secured the gubernatorial office of his opponent. Mr. Powell is indebted to the indisposition of the Whige to vote for the Whige andidate, and not to the strength of his own party, for his success. The Democratic candidate has not received as large a vote as he received in 1848, when he was hadly defeated.

The fact that the Whige candidate for the office of Lieutenant Governer is doubtless election, is of much imperiume to a proper appreciation of the election. Against Wichliffe, the Locofoce candidate, there were no objections urged by his party. He was cordinity supported by the Democratic, and yet he is besten.

The trath is, the Whige of Kentucky never went into a contest under less asspicious curcumstances. One-half of their Congressional candidates were objected to by large aumbers of their party. This sease of things operated disadensating-conty on the Governor's election.

Elst we have use dispushions to eay eas were whigh the same applications to eay ease were altered to the fall was of their party. The sease of things operated disadensating-conty on the Governor's election.
