The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE ..... NEW-ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 1, 1851.

No. 1631 Vol. X.—NEW-SERIES.
Vol XXX—Whole No 6203.

OFFICE, WASH'T ... corner
No. 83 CHARTRES STREET.

Terms of the Bee.

DAILY [illegible] year in advance ... $10 00
COUNTRY PAPER, semi-weekly, one year (in advance.) ... 5 00
No paper sent to subscriber unless ordered one week in advance in writing before he can be allowed to discontinue.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One Dollar for every TEN lines for each language, on the first insertion, and HALF that price for each subsequent insertion. No Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each language.

☞ Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each language for each insertion.

☞ The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to advertisements strictly within the line of their business, and in extent to one square every other day.

The New-Orleans Daily Bee,

Official Journal of the State, General Council, First Municipality, and Board of Liquidators.

Monday Morning, Dec. 1, 1851.

THE NORTHERN MAIL failed yesterday from beyond Mobile.

THE SOUTHERN QUARTERLY REVIEW.

The title of this work is a gross and flagrant misnomer. The founders of the Review no doubt intended it to reflect the principles and represent the opinions of the South, but for the last two or three years it has utterly degenerated from the position. Its pages are now exclusively devoted to the political abstractions and pestilent heresies of South Carolina. These we need scarcely add are so far from being the sentiments of the South, that within the past year every State South of the Potomac has distinctly repudiated them, and consigned the lean mummery which upheld them to discomfiture and speedy oblivion. We submit, therefore, that in view of the total discrepancy between the title of the periodical and the doctrines which it advocates, it should be relabelled, and should be styled, "The Quarterly Review of South Carolina." Such a cognomen would at least designate its character, and deter unsuspecting readers from obtruding their interests with the mock heroics of chivalric madness, and the unblushing avowal of the darkest and vilest disunion dogmas.

The October number of this precious periodical is now on our table, and the curious has only to open its pages and glance at the two first articles—the one entitled "South Carolina, her present action and future position," and the other, "Separate Secession"—to appreciate the entire correctness of our remarks. Both these articles are thoroughly characteristic and representative of the Review, and though they [illegible] ... Southern ... Secession ... evidences of ... for concord ... United States ... and deter us ... the ... we ... made ... expedient ... which ... Union ... Secession ... Southern ... Secession ... Union ... Secession ... Union ... Secession ... Union