The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE. — NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 26, 1852.

No. 1927, Vol. 11.—NEW SERIES. Vol. XXVI.—Whole No. 3068.

A. E. WEIGEL, Publisher, No. 29 Chartres Street.

Terms of the Bee:

DAILY PAPER, (one year in advance) $12 00
COUNTRY PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance) 5 00

No copies for subscribers unless payment reach the office, in writing, before the time is allowed to expire.

CARDS OF ADVERTISING.

One Dollar for every TEN lines in each language on the first insertion, and HALF that price for each subsequent insertion. No Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each language.

☞ Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each language on each insertion.

☞ The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their immediate family with the line of their business. All others are expected to pay cash or quarterly.

THE DAILY BEE.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE.

Friday Morning, Nov. 26, 1852.

THE NORTHERN MAIL came through yesterday with the latest dates.

THE WHIG MEETING TO-NIGHT.

We trust it is scarcely necessary to remind the WHIGS of New Orleans that the mass gathering of the party takes place this evening at Beale' Arcade. The object of this assemblage is, as we stated yesterday, to take fitting action in reference to the important State election which will be held on the 6th Monday in December: and we presume that this occasion will be embraced to submit to the Whigs of Orleans a comprehensive platform of principles, such as befits that party under whose auspices and by whose exertions the New Constitution of the State was framed and adopted. The signatures appended to the call are convincing proofs of the zeal and readiness with which the leading Whigs of our city are prepared to enter upon the contest. The issues of State policy are deemed of paramount importance by hundreds of Whigs who either took but a languid interest in the recent Presidential struggle, or under an honest, though we think mistaken view of the character and consequences of that contest, abstained from all participation in it. Every citizen of New Orleans who voted for WINFIELD SCOTT and hundreds who did not, are now anxious to conduct with becoming ardor, and upon a proper platform of policy, the brief campaign of the ensuing month. It is our clear and undoubting conviction that if this canvass be prosecuted with unanimity and courage—if able and popular candidates be chosen, and a wise and suitable chart of principles adapted to the necessities of the Commonwealth, and the growing spirit of healthful progress, be devised, the Whigs of Louisiana will redeem the State by a triumph worthy of their patriotism and days.

Let us, then, fellow Whigs, embark in this contest with the fixed determination to cast aside all past differences and dissentions, and with a firm resolve to unite manfully and heartily in placing Louisiana under the control of that party, which experience has shown, has alone demonstrated alike the will and the power to render her prosperous and great. The era of the ascendancy of Whig doctrines in the Legislative department of our Government has been marked as an epoch, whence will date the commencement and bold career of competition with other States, in the great struggle for commercial supremacy. Languishing and impoverished under democratic rule—the resources of our State undeveloped, and its enterprise shackled by the Nation inhibitions of the now defunct organic law, the advent of the Whig party into power in a single branch of the Government, has been the signal for a new and animating policy—a policy which has marched with the age—which has hurled antiquated and intractable error from its path—which has substituted alacrity, zeal, energy and public spirit, for the wretched imbecility of old fogyism—which has removed the withes and ligatures that impeded the progress of the city, and which even now begins to see the germs of the precious fruit springing from the soil in which the seeds of enterprise were planted. It is to preserve and enlarge the domination of these principles that Whigs are invoked to action; and in their mass gathering to night, we hope that such action will be had in the premises, as will satisfy every impartial citizen, that the Whigs are steadfast in their adhesion to the liberal, broad and Catholic programme of principles, under which they fought and conquered in the last State election.

NEW SYSTEM OF SUGAR MAKING.—We call the attention of our readers, and particularly of the planters, to the card of Mr. JAMES C. DAUNAIS, in another column, announcing an interest at Rando's new and improved system of sugar making. He informs the public that the trial to show the advantages of his system alternately with the ordinary one, has been concluded, on the plantation of Mr. W. F. Mason, to the entire satisfaction of the latter, and of the planters of the vicinity. Mr. Gallaher estimates the clear profits by the new system, at 25 and 30 per cent. over the ordinary system

NORTH CAROLINA UNITED STATES SENATOR.—It is stated that a caucus of the Democratic members of the Legislature of North Carolina has nominated Mr. James C. Dobbin, for United States Senator, in the place of the Hon. Willie P. Mangum, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. It is supposed that the Whigs will unite upon the Hon Wm Iredell A Graham The Democrats have one majority on joint ballot.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF NORTH CAROLINA—The official result of the Presidential election in North Car lina, is as follows: Pierce, 39,764; Scott 39,161. Majority for Pierce, 603. At the Governor's election, in August, the vote stood—Reid, Dem.) 48,494, and Kerr, (Whig) 42,993. Since August, the Democratic vote has fallen off 4,730, and the Whig vote 3,832—total decrease, 12,552.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Legislature of New Hamshire assembled at Concord on the 17th, and Governor Martin delivered his message, of which the following is an extract of the details

It commences with a warm congratulation on the social, educational and political condition of the State, recommends economy and economy in levying State taxes; suggests action for preserving the public lands, and virtually recommends the abolition of the statute of limits in relation to the collection of debts

The message also suggests some additional legislation to prevent accidents on railroads and in manufactories, establishes a quality