

THE DAILY BEE

Monday Morning, May 2, 1933

THE DAILY BEE.
Published every morning except on Sundays and public holidays, at the office of the publisher, 112 N. Canal street, New Orleans, La., from 6 o'clock to 12 o'clock.

Subscription Rates:
Per Annum, $3.00 in Advance.
Six Months, $1.75.
Three Months, $1.00.
Single Copies, 5 Cents.

Advertising Rates:
Per Line Per Week, $2.00.
Per Line Per Month, $6.00.
Per Line Per Year, $60.00.
Special Rates for Long-Term Advertising.

Entered as Second-Class Matter, May 12, 1879, under Post Office No. 157, New Orleans, La., Post Office of Origin.

NEWS OF THE DAY

From a report published in the press it is learned that the Federal Reserve Bank of New Orleans has decided to raise its discount rate from 4 to 4 1/2 percent. This move is expected to be effective on May 1st.

FAIR PLAY. The fair play committee has issued a statement regarding the recent developments in the case of the Spanish sailors. They express their satisfaction with the progress of the case and hope for a prompt resolution.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS. The case of the Spanish sailors has been the subject of much discussion in the press. The committee has been actively engaged in negotiations with the relevant authorities.

COMMERCIAL. The commercial section of the newspaper provides a detailed overview of the local business scene, including reports on trade, industry, and financial markets.

COMMERCIAL

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS. The commercial section continues with reports on various business activities, including the performance of different sectors and the impact of economic conditions.

MARKET TRENDS. The section discusses the current trends in the market, highlighting key areas of interest and providing insights into the future outlook.

INDUSTRY NEWS. Reports on the activities of various industries, including manufacturing, services, and construction, are provided.

FINANCIAL ANALYSIS. The section offers a detailed analysis of the financial situation, including discussions on interest rates, currency, and investment opportunities.

PUBLIC NOTICES

NOTICE OF SALE. A notice regarding the sale of certain property, including details on the terms of the sale and the location of the property.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. A notice issued to creditors regarding the liquidation of a business, providing information on how to file claims.

LEGAL NOTICES. Various legal notices, including those related to court proceedings, contracts, and other legal matters.

PROPERTY NOTICES. Notices related to real estate, including lease agreements, property sales, and other matters.

CANDIDATES

Local Candidates. A list of candidates for local elections, including names, addresses, and the positions they are running for.

Statewide Candidates. A list of candidates for statewide elections, providing details on their backgrounds and political affiliations.

Party Platforms. A summary of the platforms and policies of the various political parties competing in the elections.

Election Information. Additional information regarding the election process, including dates, locations, and procedures for voting.

AMUSEMENTS

THEATRE. A list of plays and performances currently running in local theatres, including cast members and showtimes.

MUSIC. Information about musical performances, concerts, and other entertainment events.

SPORTS. Reports on local sports events, including games, races, and other athletic activities.

RECREATION. Information about recreational activities, such as parks, museums, and other leisure options.