THE GRAND SALOONS

E. JACOBS,

NO. 93 CAMP STREET.

Were opened to the public on the 1st instant.

They contain the most valuable and extensive collection of PICTURES, in Oil and Water Colors; DRAWINGS FROM THE FRENCH, ENGLISH AND AMERICAN SCHOOLS; ITALIAN MARBLE and BRONZE STATUETTES, with other choice Works of Art, ever exhibited in this city.

Strangers and citizens, particularly the ladies, are invited to examine the splendid Gallery of PAINTINGS, unique Gallery of the FINE ARTS.

The Daguerreotype Department, in its various improvements and applications, surpasses any Daguerreotype Establishment in Europe, or in this country.

The Portraits are executed in the highest style known at the art, and by a new Philosophical Process, are fully equal to the most beautiful Miniature Painting, while displaying the Life-like expression of the features, instead of the usual unmeaning appearance of the Daguerreotype taken by the ordinary method.

The Stock of MEDALLIONS, LOCKETS, RINGS, and BREAST-PINS, of fine Gold, contains every variety and of the newest Fashion, furnished at manufacturers' prices.

All orders for Daguerreotype Materials must be accompanied by cash. The Dry Plates, prepared by E. Jacobs for operators, is warranted to retain its chemical properties pure for six months, price, $10 per jar.
