Under the direction of
MADAME CHARPAUX,

THE MISSES CHARPAUX, daughters of the late Mr. Charpaux, for many years a resident of this city, having had, last winter, the honor to announce that they had opened a day and boarding school for young ladies, at the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets, and that the success which attended their efforts, generally, justified the hope that they would be favored with a still more extensive patronage, have the pleasure to inform their friends and the public that they have, during the summer vacation, made such additions to the building as will enable them to accommodate a number of boarders.

The situation was perhaps the best to be found in the city, which, being open for circulation for an extensive country, renders it peculiarly favorable for the health of children.
