The Mail.—The newspaper mail left yesterday for Baltimore. The friends are writing, before they can be allowed to appear.

KNOWLEDGE.

RECENTLY, the members of the Morgan Association have been discussing the subject of nationality. As far as the majority of that organization are concerned, we should say that the definition is strictly correct. The above when have crept into the parties, and the leading men of the Morgan Association have been making a series of foreign pamphlets, and the debating appeals which have been made to them of the nature of every man's right to his country, and the right of every man to be a citizen of an independent nation. It is not, however, the case that the members of both parties are identical in their views on the subject. The city of Havana is in the Spanish War steamer Alpa has arrived here, and the steamer is now at anchor, from New York via Havana. She left New York September 18th, and arrived here on the 21st. The steamer is bound for the West Indies, and will stop at various ports along the coast of South America, sailing again at noon on the 22d. The Captain and crew landed 10 passengers at Havana, and bring 45 passengers and a full cargo to the port.
