THE DAILY BEE. Monday Morning, Jaguary 9th, 1855.

THE RIGHTS OF JANUARY. anaiversary of a day which witnessed the most signal triumph that ever graced the American arms. On the Eighth of January, our people occase to be politicians, and remamber only that they are Americans. They forget the Presi-dent, whose administration was marked by such protracted assimostics, and bitter party streggles, and recall solely the memory of Arnaux January. The fearliess here, the far-sighted and sageroom warrior, the unawarring patriot. All becor, and reverence, and grati-tede be paid to his memory, for he was a man born to achieve great deeds, and destined to find immortality on the paces of his country's history. To him, under Heaven, were we in-chebed for the agiety of on soble city, and for a
