The SLAVE OF THE LANF.—Our acknowl. edgments are due J. C. Mongan, Exchange Place, for a copy of this work. It is the prodection of Wh. Morrh, an Englishman of fine the pressure of repeated disappointments and dire necessity, poisoned himself in New York last November. The sad career of the sattor and the meiancholy termination of his existence, combined with the attractive tile of the book have given it considerable celebrity. We have a careerly rad enough of it to promounce a judgment on its merits but from the opening chapters about conclude it to be a work of mach merit, brilliant and vigorous in styles erratic and sometimes singularly original in thought, and at all times fraught with intense interest. We may have somewhat further to any of "The Blave of the Lamp," by persuing it attentively.

GEORGE LAW.—It is removed that GEORGE LAW is concoccing another political manifesto in reply to the letter os the presidential question addressed him by the American party in the New Jersey legislature. The Treaton correspondent of the N.Y. Herald says:

The knowing ones here say that he will spread binself on the constitution, toaching the "nigger question," and electrify the whole Union. Great constrantion prevails, in consequence, among the Stockton party, who have been working hard, and are said to be willing to "bleed freely" to secure the inside track. I shall endeavor to give you an early copy of the letter when it comes. The Jersey Blace are so much delighted with that Pennsylvania American platform, that they have lesisted upon one from Live Oak George for themselves. Look out for it.
